Brief Description

Black and white photograph of a man wearing a three piece suit with checkered pants. There is a pocket watch chain attached to the top button of his vest. His left arm (right in image) is leaning on a table and it looks like he is wearing light colored gloves. The photograph is attached to another piece of thick paper and there is a 2 cent Washington stamp on the back. The photograph came in an envelope with "Hezebiah Fowler, Cam-- doctor, #53). This is most likely O.E. Heller's organization system.

There is a stain in the middle along the left edge of the photograph as well as along the bottom edge.
