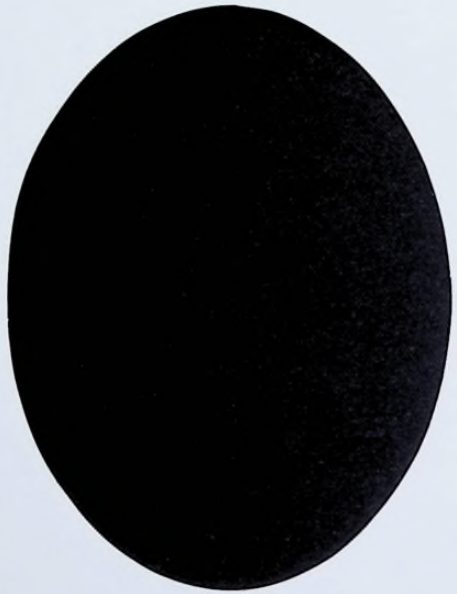
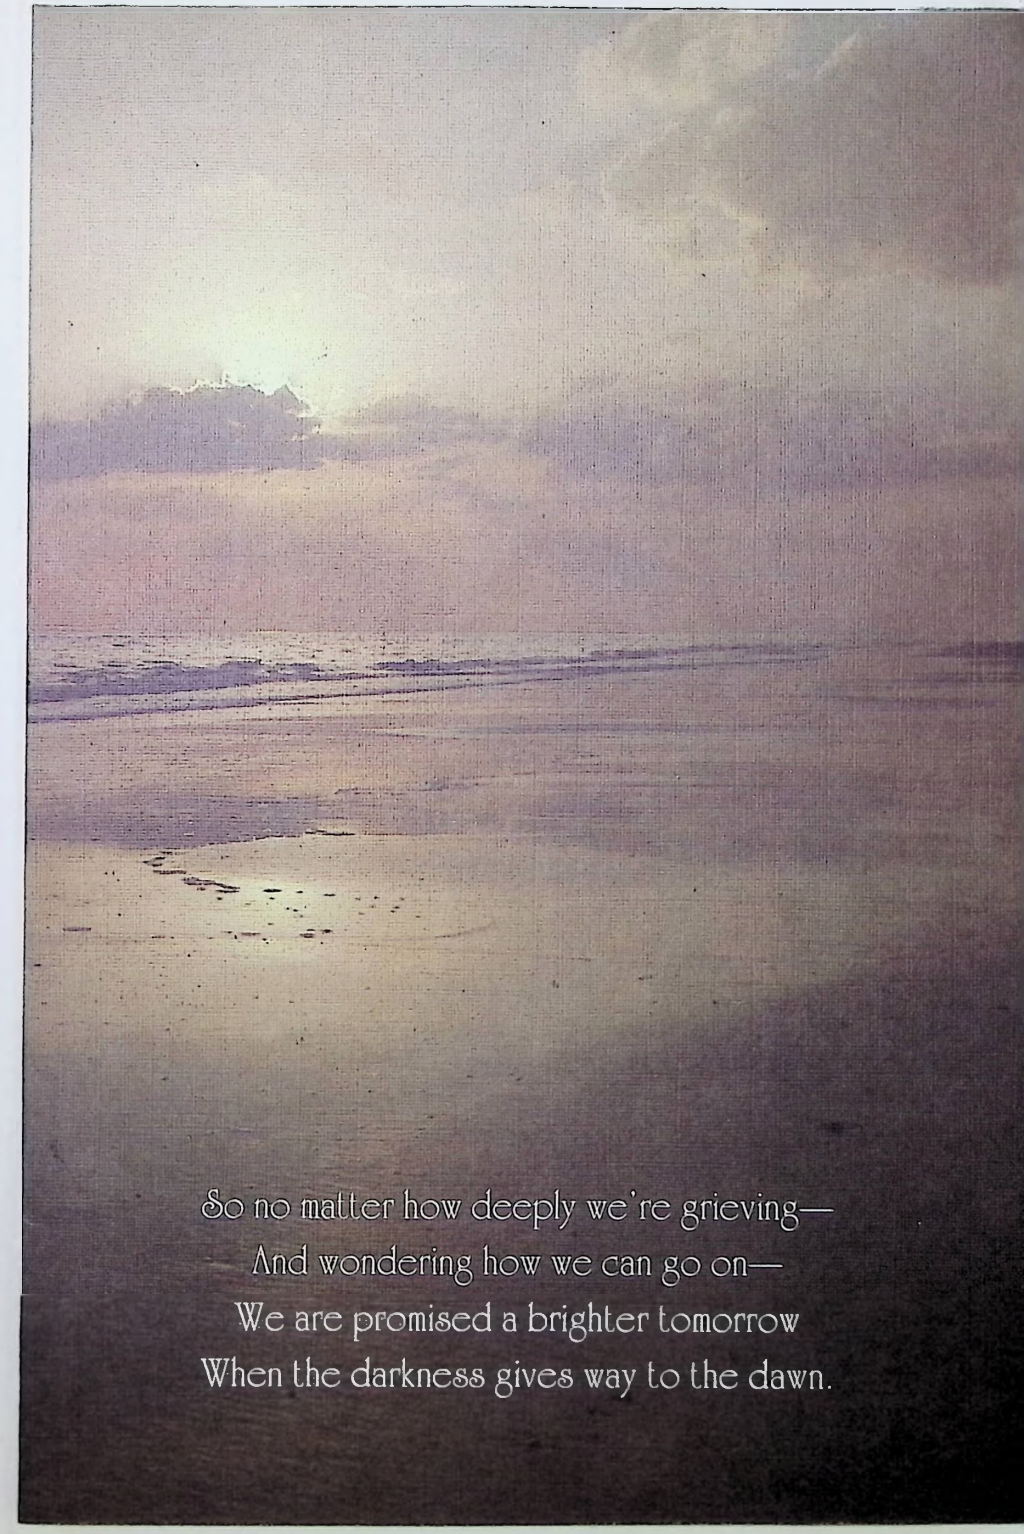
With Sincere Sympathy From All Of Us

There's a dawn after every darkness
No matter how deep the night.
When the sun comes up in its splendor
Spreading its hope and its light...





So no matter how deeply we're grieving—
And wondering how we can go on—
We are promised a brighter tomorrow
When the darkness gives way to the dawn.

It's very hard to put in words
The things we'd like to say
Or tell you of the sympathy
That's in our hearts today...

FEB. 7. 1986

Dear Mr. Foley,

My Social Studies classes + I (at Frank Hurt Sr. Secondary School, Surrey) felt very sorry about the tragedy of the space shuttle. So, on behalf of them, I send our heartfelt condolences to your school and please know that we are thinking about you.

But we hope that as you read this
You will know how much we care
And the thought
will make your sorrow
Somewhat easier to bear

Yours sincerely,
(Miss) Judy Eggleton
