Brief Description

Small piece of paper with black ink that reads "On demand I for value received promise to pay to Elizabeth Fowler or bearer three hundred and ninety eight Dollars and fifty cents. Manchester December 16th 1843" and signed Lewis Fowler.

The left and right edges have multiple tears and the top left is folded in. There is a stain in the middle of the right edge. There appears to be a water stain in the middle of the bottom edge. Multiple blue stains are along the right side of the paper. There is water damage over the word "Dollars".
