Dear Students of Concord High School.

I am very sorry for the horrible thing that happened yesterday. I bet you were looking foward for the flight. all of the kid and teaches in our school too was looking foward for the flight. My teacher was going to tape the flight but she couldn't. Lot of the teacher in our school cried. I think you did too. But I couldn't belive that was the explosion. It was just a second! When I first saw it, I thought the ship was getting separated but when I knew that wasn't, I felt awful. But I hope you don't give up and stop studing. If you keep studing, Mrs. McAuliffe will be proud at you.

Sincerly,
Maki Harada,
Tamami Sato
Shinobu Shibamori

P.S. Don't cry.!

Don't you cry!
