

Jan, 16, 1928. Dear, Cousin, Louise we got. y^r letter, & also the $3.00 for y^r taxer, all o.k., & the letter found us pretty well just now, and I was down to y^r place Sunday, and in the House, it was all o.k., only the Barn everything, dug up, & a Hole, in the North side, it look like day worker, the Hole is large as a pail, But I stuff it up again, I take some Bread, & Grease; and mixt the parin, up good, & then on the Bread well I will find out, how much they will be sat. the, Taxer is up this year I paid mine the Jan, 13, over to the House my, Taxer, for 1927, was $11.70 and this year they was $12.55; so y^e can see they are up, a little well, Louise, did you have 1927, Taper receipt, or Bill, that is the one you send sent to me, But I will find out, how much the Taper is, & pay them - Sat for you, well we had a good time up to Linda & Flane, New Year, we went Sunday, after noon, & came Home, Monday night, well now, when I get the Taper paid, I will write you again, so now no New Year time, & will come to a close & hope everybody cold, will be better & hope now body will get sick, so many all over, is sick with the cold, now I will write you again, after the Taper is Paid so write when you have the time, so good by & our Best wishes from Millie & Nettie say, Louie, I forgot to ask you, if you want to sell. Will it overcoat, I think it was a Black coat, it would be just what I need. I haven't got a good overcoat to wear, and how much do you want for the overcoat and, say would you, let me have the overcoat, on the Shingle I am willing to give you for the overcoat, $5 or $6, and if you make up your mind to sell, you can let me now, or you can leave the overcoat on the table and if you have no time to write you can write and leave it on the table, so I will now, if you want to sell it or not, this would help me out, and it would save you pay me, that much money ~~out~~ on the shingle
