Dear Headmaster:

We were deeply grieved after hearing the bad news about Challanger explosion that your woman teacher, Crista McAuliffe, was killed. McAuliffe was the first woman civilian to be included in a U S space mission. She was chosen from 1,146 teachers who applied for the privilege. We are proud of your training a woman teacher to extraordinary ability. That is not only the honour of woman teachers of your school, U.S.A. but also of the whole world including China. I am a woman teacher too. We are of the same occupation. Please pass the another letter enclosed on to McAuliffe's family. Thank you very much.

Best regards to you, your teaching staff and your students.

Sincerely Yours

Wei-Zhi Xue
