Description	Black and white photograph of four light colored headstones in front of a row of bushes. Between the right two headstones is an 'x' written in black ink. Written in black ink on the back is "The grave of the last David Fowler. His grandfather was David Fowler, Jr. He was one of the few who remained true to the Baptist church." And in the bottom right corner is the date "1936". There appears to have been something written above this anecdote but it is faded or erased.
