CHALLENGER

TOUCH THE STARS

We watched you go and now, in our
Sadness, we mourn your leaving.
Brave achievement often claims its price;
But heroes seldom pause to heed the cost,
Although aware you did not hesitate or
Falter. Nor shall we, or in your passing
Deem you truly lost.

You do not end; and from our pain reborn
Determination lives anew.
Would you not have said: " GO ON! ", and those
Who love you, now bid us face the challenge
That you gladly knew.

We shall not forget, this our promise; and in
Time heroes such as you shall cross the star
Spangled halls of Space. Your bold unfailing
Courage; in spirit, linked with theirs
Way beyond where once we watched you soar afar.
Wait for us, for you have already reached out to Touch the Stars.
