Awakening . . . 12

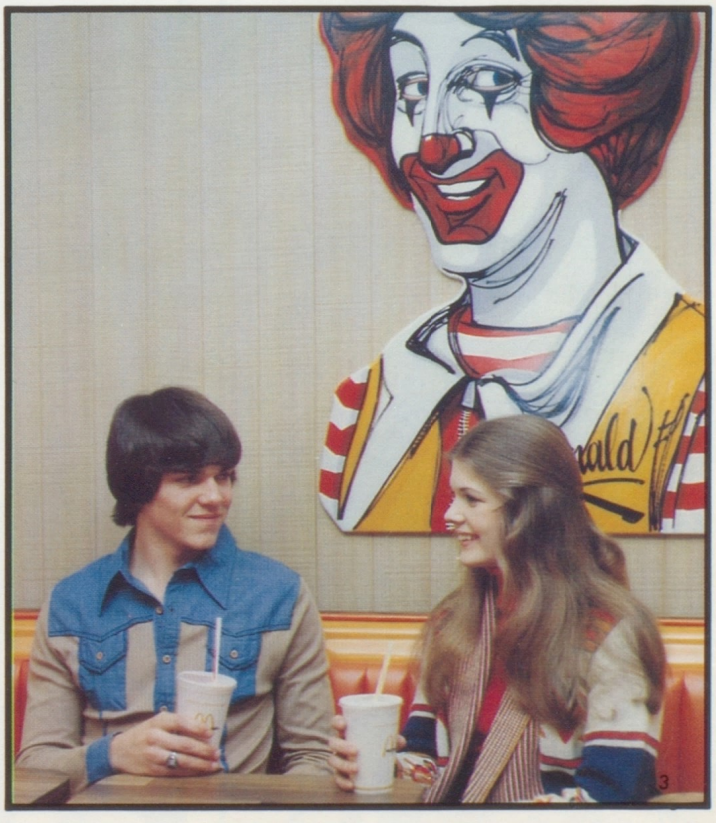
Pursuit . . . 20

Sharyn Hahn and Steve Brogle, Mr. and Miss Mercer, slowly start the day by catching up on their sleep before classes. During the day, they are able to take some time out of class by teasing each other. Steve tries to run away from Sharyn, but she is getting closer in her pursuit. After school, Mr. and Miss Mercer try to think of someplace they can go to relax. Steve and Sharyn end the day by having a coke at McDonald's.

HOPING FOR A RAINBOW

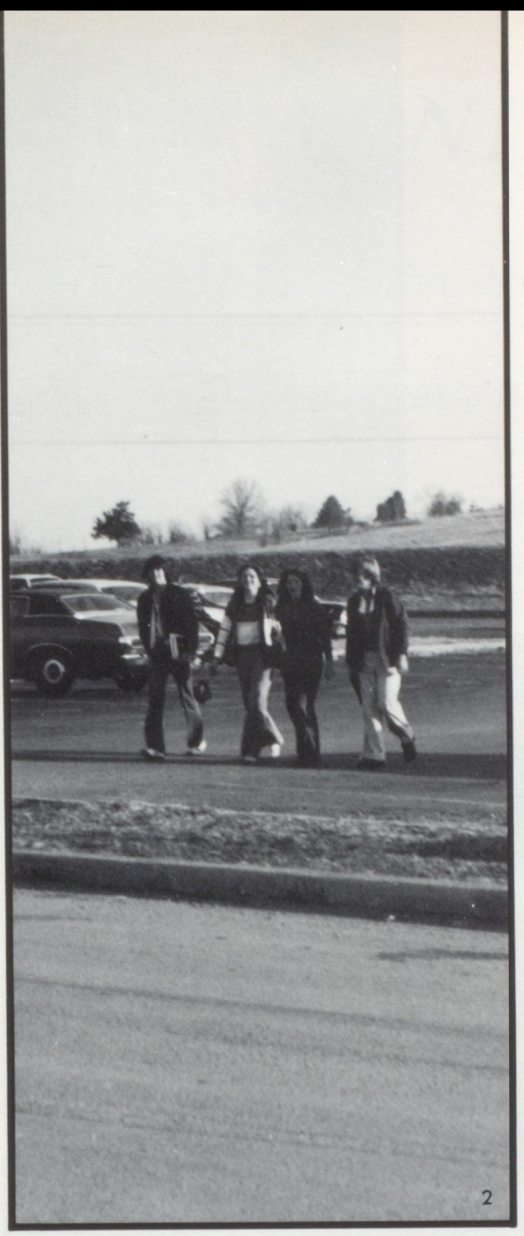
Escape . . . 148

Community . . . 194



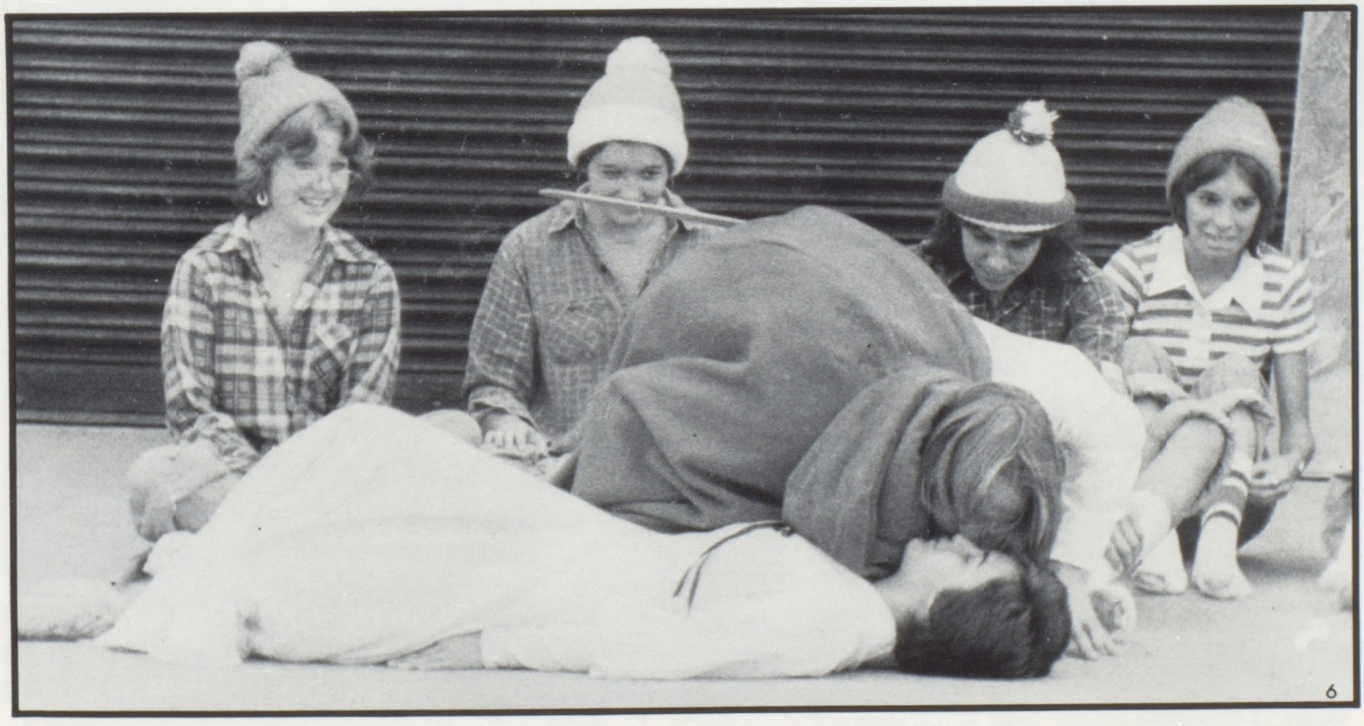
After the rain
Comes a rainbow.
Out of discipline
Comes a lesson well learned.
After the tears
Comes a smile.
Out of hard work
Comes success well earned.
And out of hope
Comes a dream fulfilled.

— Angela Whitenack



Each day we AWAKEN in PURSUIT of success and later ESCAPE into the COMMUNITY for relaxation.

1-2) Each morning student drivers and riders leave their cars as they hope that the day will be even better than the day before.
3) Karen McGuire was chosen an employee of the month at McDonald's because she showed good determination and pride in all her work.
4) Doug Brown and Edward Davidson, students of Mrs. Gill's Adult Living class, are excited about eating their first full course meal.
5) During lunch the Juniors took time to see how many people would fit in Brookie Peavler's car.
6) In a drama class production, the handsome prince (David Taasaas) gives Snow White (Lorrie Logue) the awakening kiss as the four dwarfs (Tina Ransdell, Tammy Spaulding, Edd Flynn, and Melanie Ellis) watch.



As each new day dawns, we arise with the hope of a new discovery.

1) One of the morning rituals is hoisting the flag up the pole.
2) Janet Chumbly, Shelly Hendren and Lisa Collins find something amusing to talk about before classes begin.
3) A group of boys wonder on Monday mornings whether coming early to make up snow days is worth it after all.
4) Sandra Coy and Angela Thompson are ready for anything they might encounter during the day.
5) Donna Sanders eagerly awaits the new day.
6) Mark Grigsby and Donnie Burke are in a hurry to get to homeroom.
7) Scott Bivens makes an unsuccessful attempt to awaken Connie Taylor.

AWAKENING

Hopes of sleepy blue oceans and shining shores of sand
Of cool, shady forests and beautiful sparkling streams.
Of warm golden sun and morning mist.
Hopes of peace and serenity.

Tomorrow,
Hopes of a rainbow.

— Kathy Cannon

PURSUIT

That golden road to the rainbow is paved with concrete, blacktop and finally the greenest green grass, all on which we must walk to reach the pot of gold.

We must learn to share, love and expand our knowledge.

— Sherry Turner

Pursuing a goal and finally accomplishing it makes our lives seem more worthwhile.

1) Tara Mayes and Roni Beth Johnson create decorative objects with papier maché.
2) John Warner was able to attend the National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Illinois by being a top winner in his 4-H projects on forestry.
3) Robert Gorham represented our school in the Presidential Classroom in Washington, D.C.
4) Mrs. Fegenbush's Freshman class enjoys an hour telling ghost stories.
5) Todd Collier demonstrates the proper way to use a jack hammer.
6) Patty Hembree pursues her taco as Sherry Goodpaster seems to have conquered hers.
7) Kim Russell uses every minute to prepare herself for the next class.
8) Juniors Becky Gay, Renee Moss and Sheri King participate in selling Stanley Products in order to finance the prom.

Each student attempts, in his own way, to escape the drudgery of the school day routine.

1) Pep Club members Kim Warner and Teresa Driscoll help show their support for the Scottie team.
2) Tim Royalty prepares to escape the rain.
3) Tina Ransdell attempts to flee from her opponent, Karen Preston.
4) At the end of the day Joey Mobley eagerly heads for home.
5) The new McDonald's in Harrodsburg provides jobs for several Mercer students like Steve Sanford and Bill Staples.
6) Betty Lawson participates in the band's half-time show.
7) The annual Homecoming bonfire provides another activity for students to enjoy.
8) Nancy Prewitt surrenders the crown to Cecilia Pulliam, 1977 Homecoming Queen.
9) For added amusement, the cheerleaders act out the Frankenstein cheer.

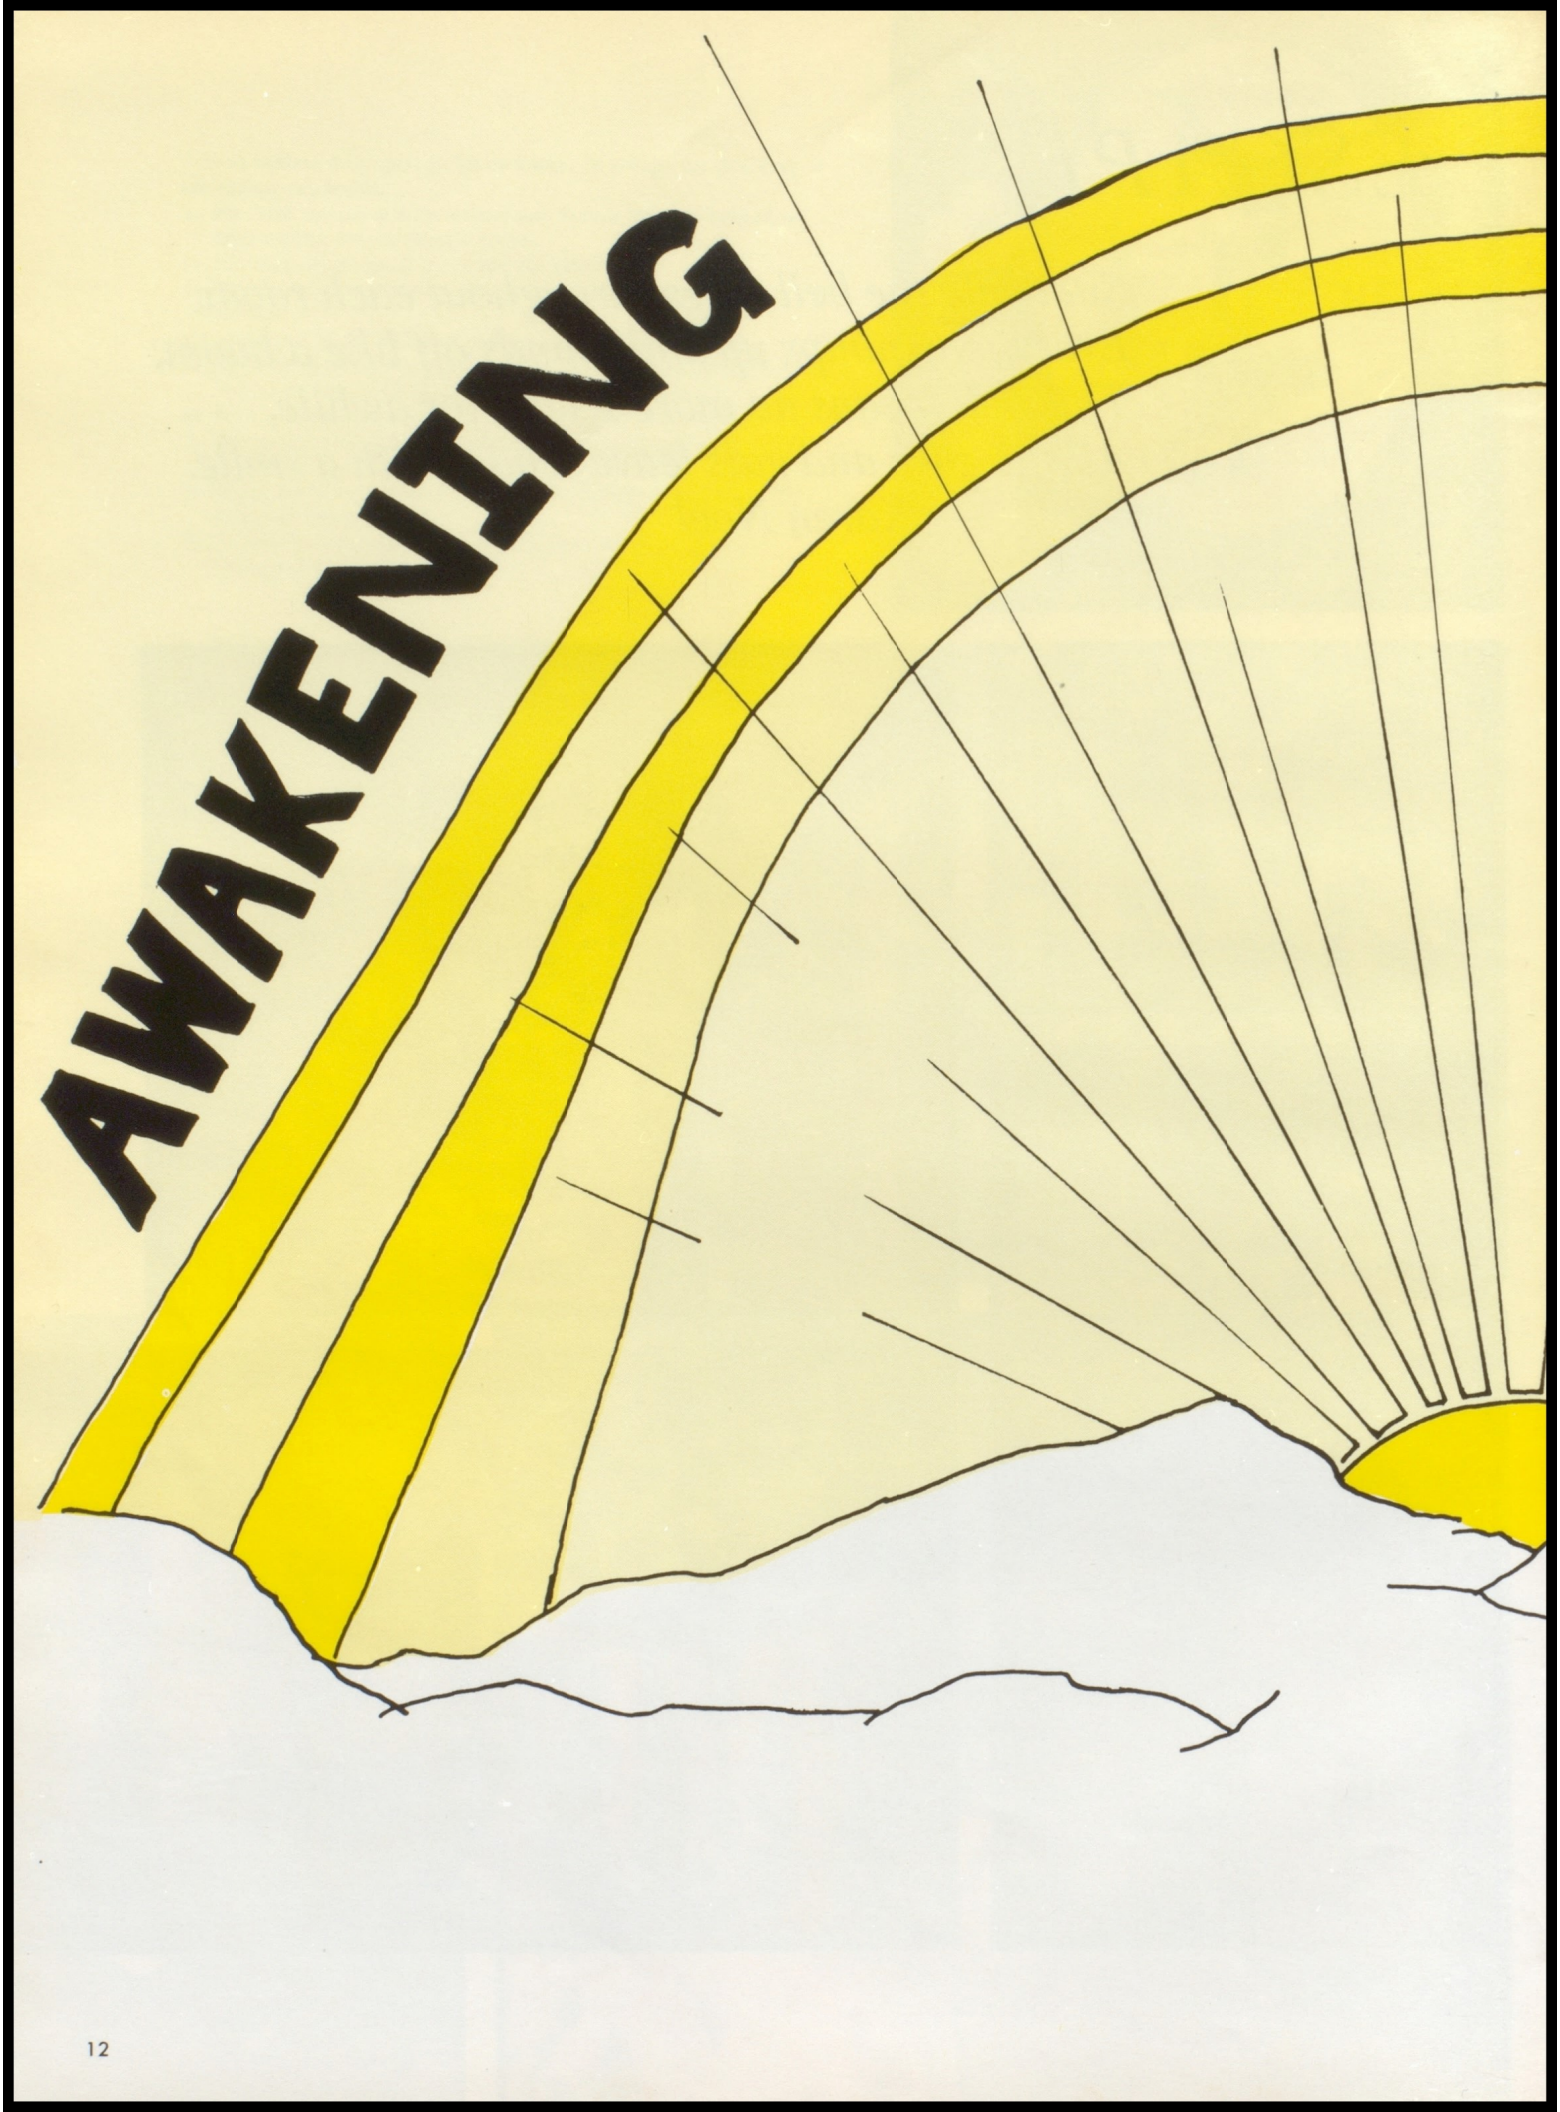
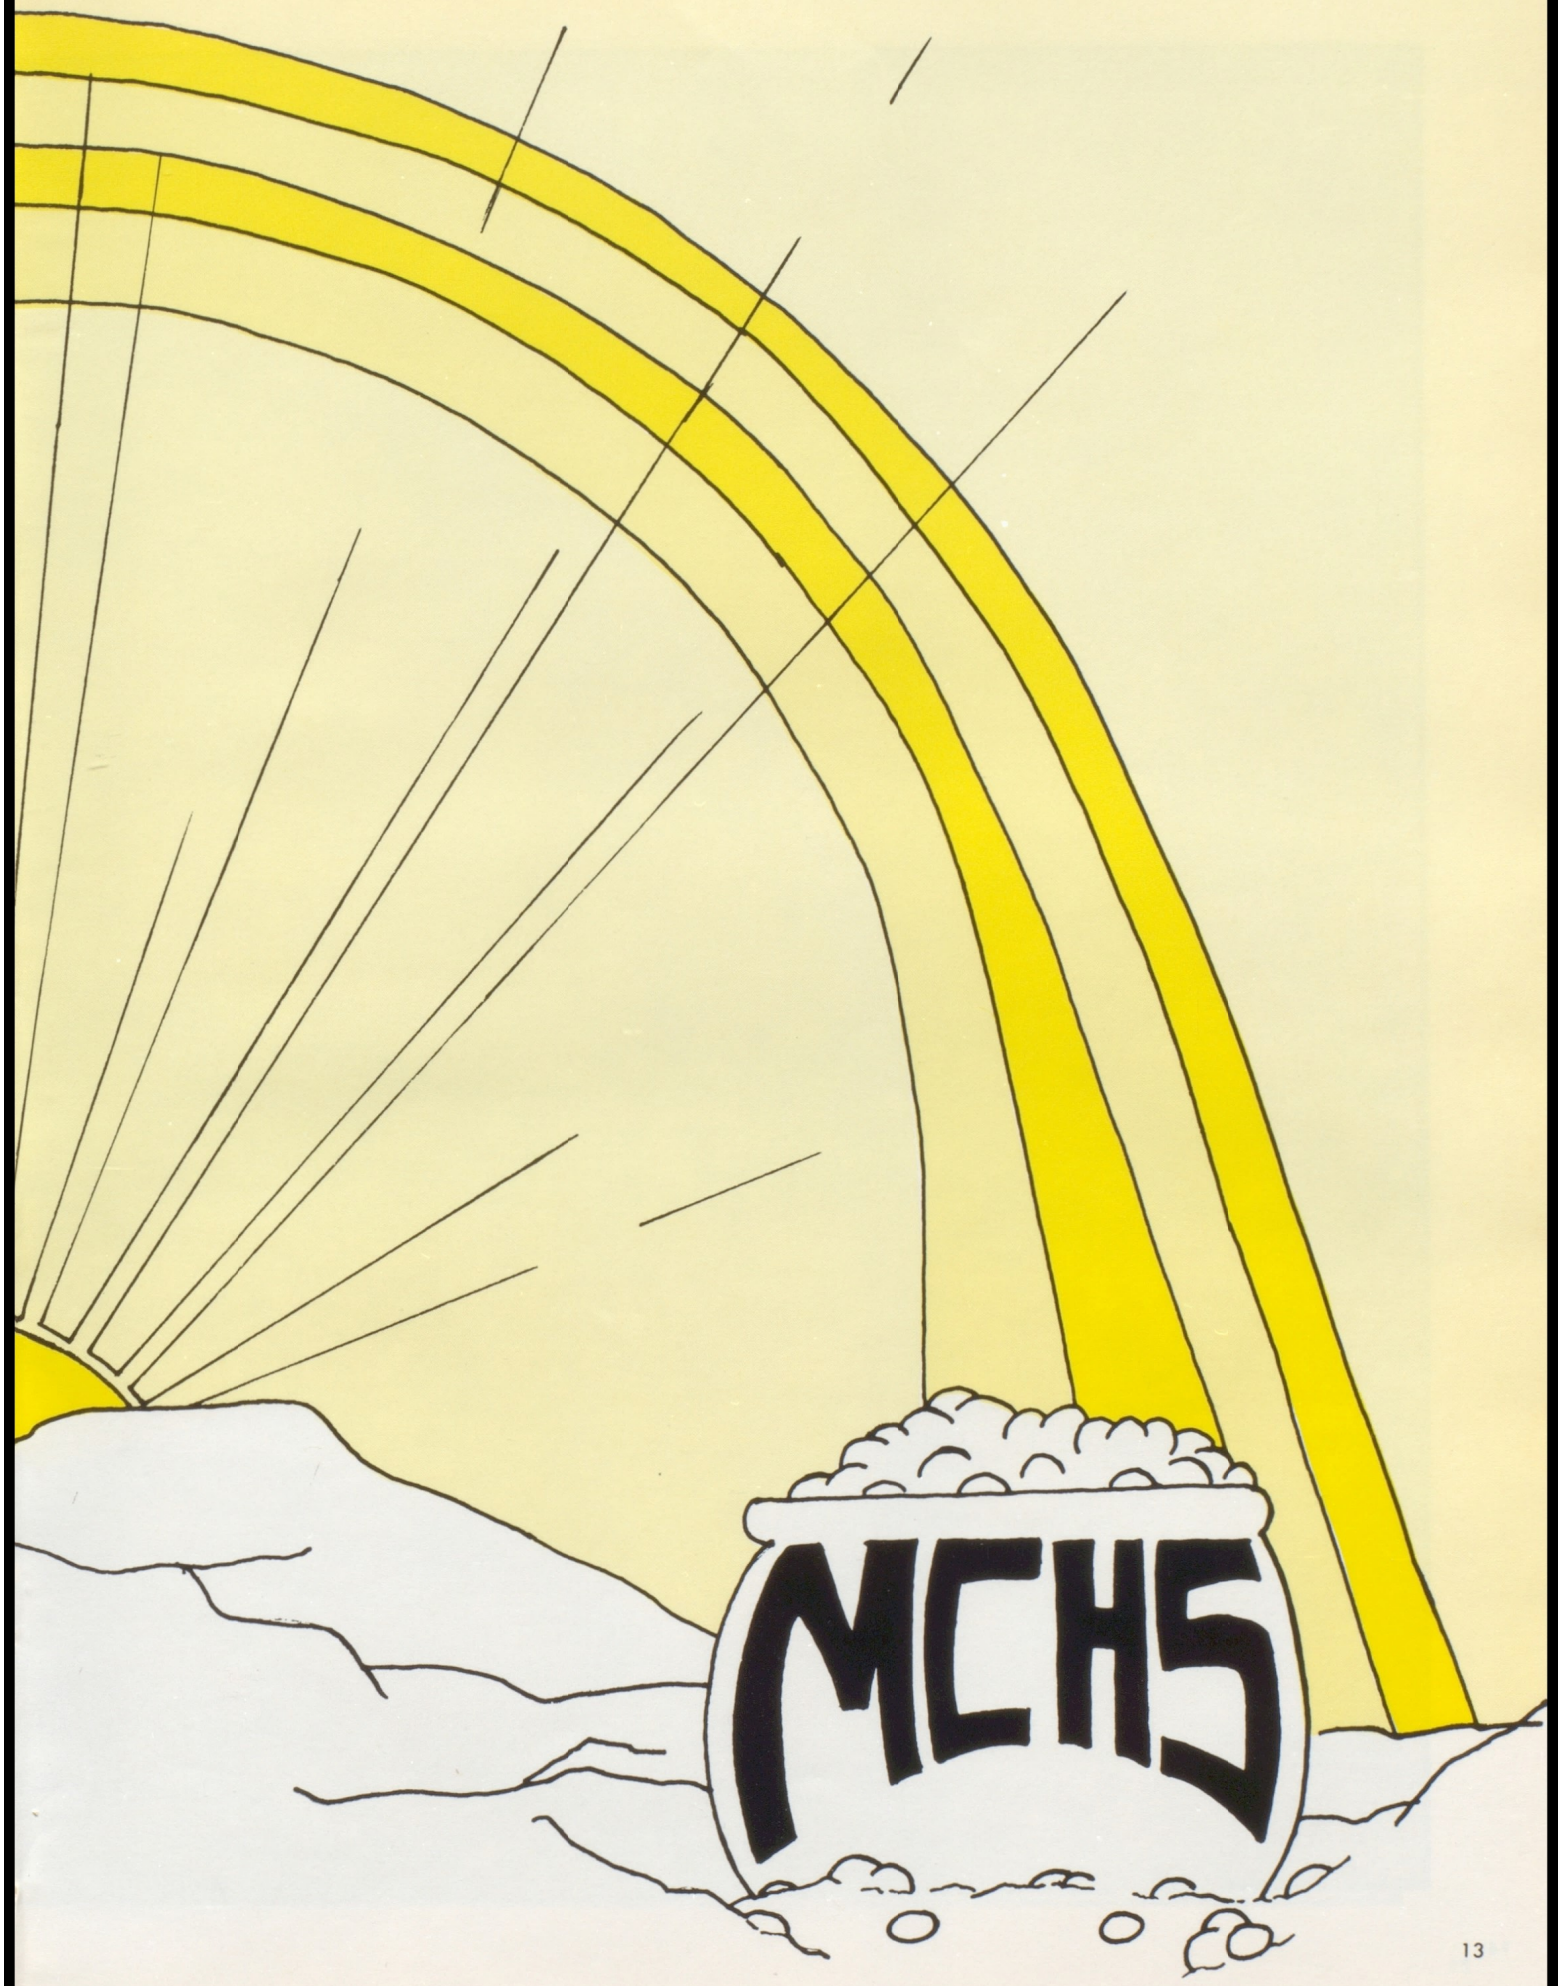
ESCAPE

Suddenly the bell rings throughout each room,
Everybody jumps up and sounds off like a boom;
This bell means no more school for awhile,
All the guys and gals leave school with a smile.
— Karen Noel



AWAKENING



MCHS

Shaded memories of fleeting moments
Are left behind in the mist —

As they loosen their ties
And enter the galaxy of people that surrounds them —

Fantasy becomes reality, and their dreams fade —

Struggling to survive.
They live —

Hoping for a rainbow . . .

— Jim Benge

SURPRISE!

It's Morning

1) Melanie Ellis, Cheryl Coy and Chuck McKinney exchange the latest gossip early in the morning.
2) Anne Prewitt catches a few more winks before class.
3) Before homeroom, students find it difficult to be enthusiastic.
4) Mr. Kays finds that morning comes very early.

A New Day Dawns

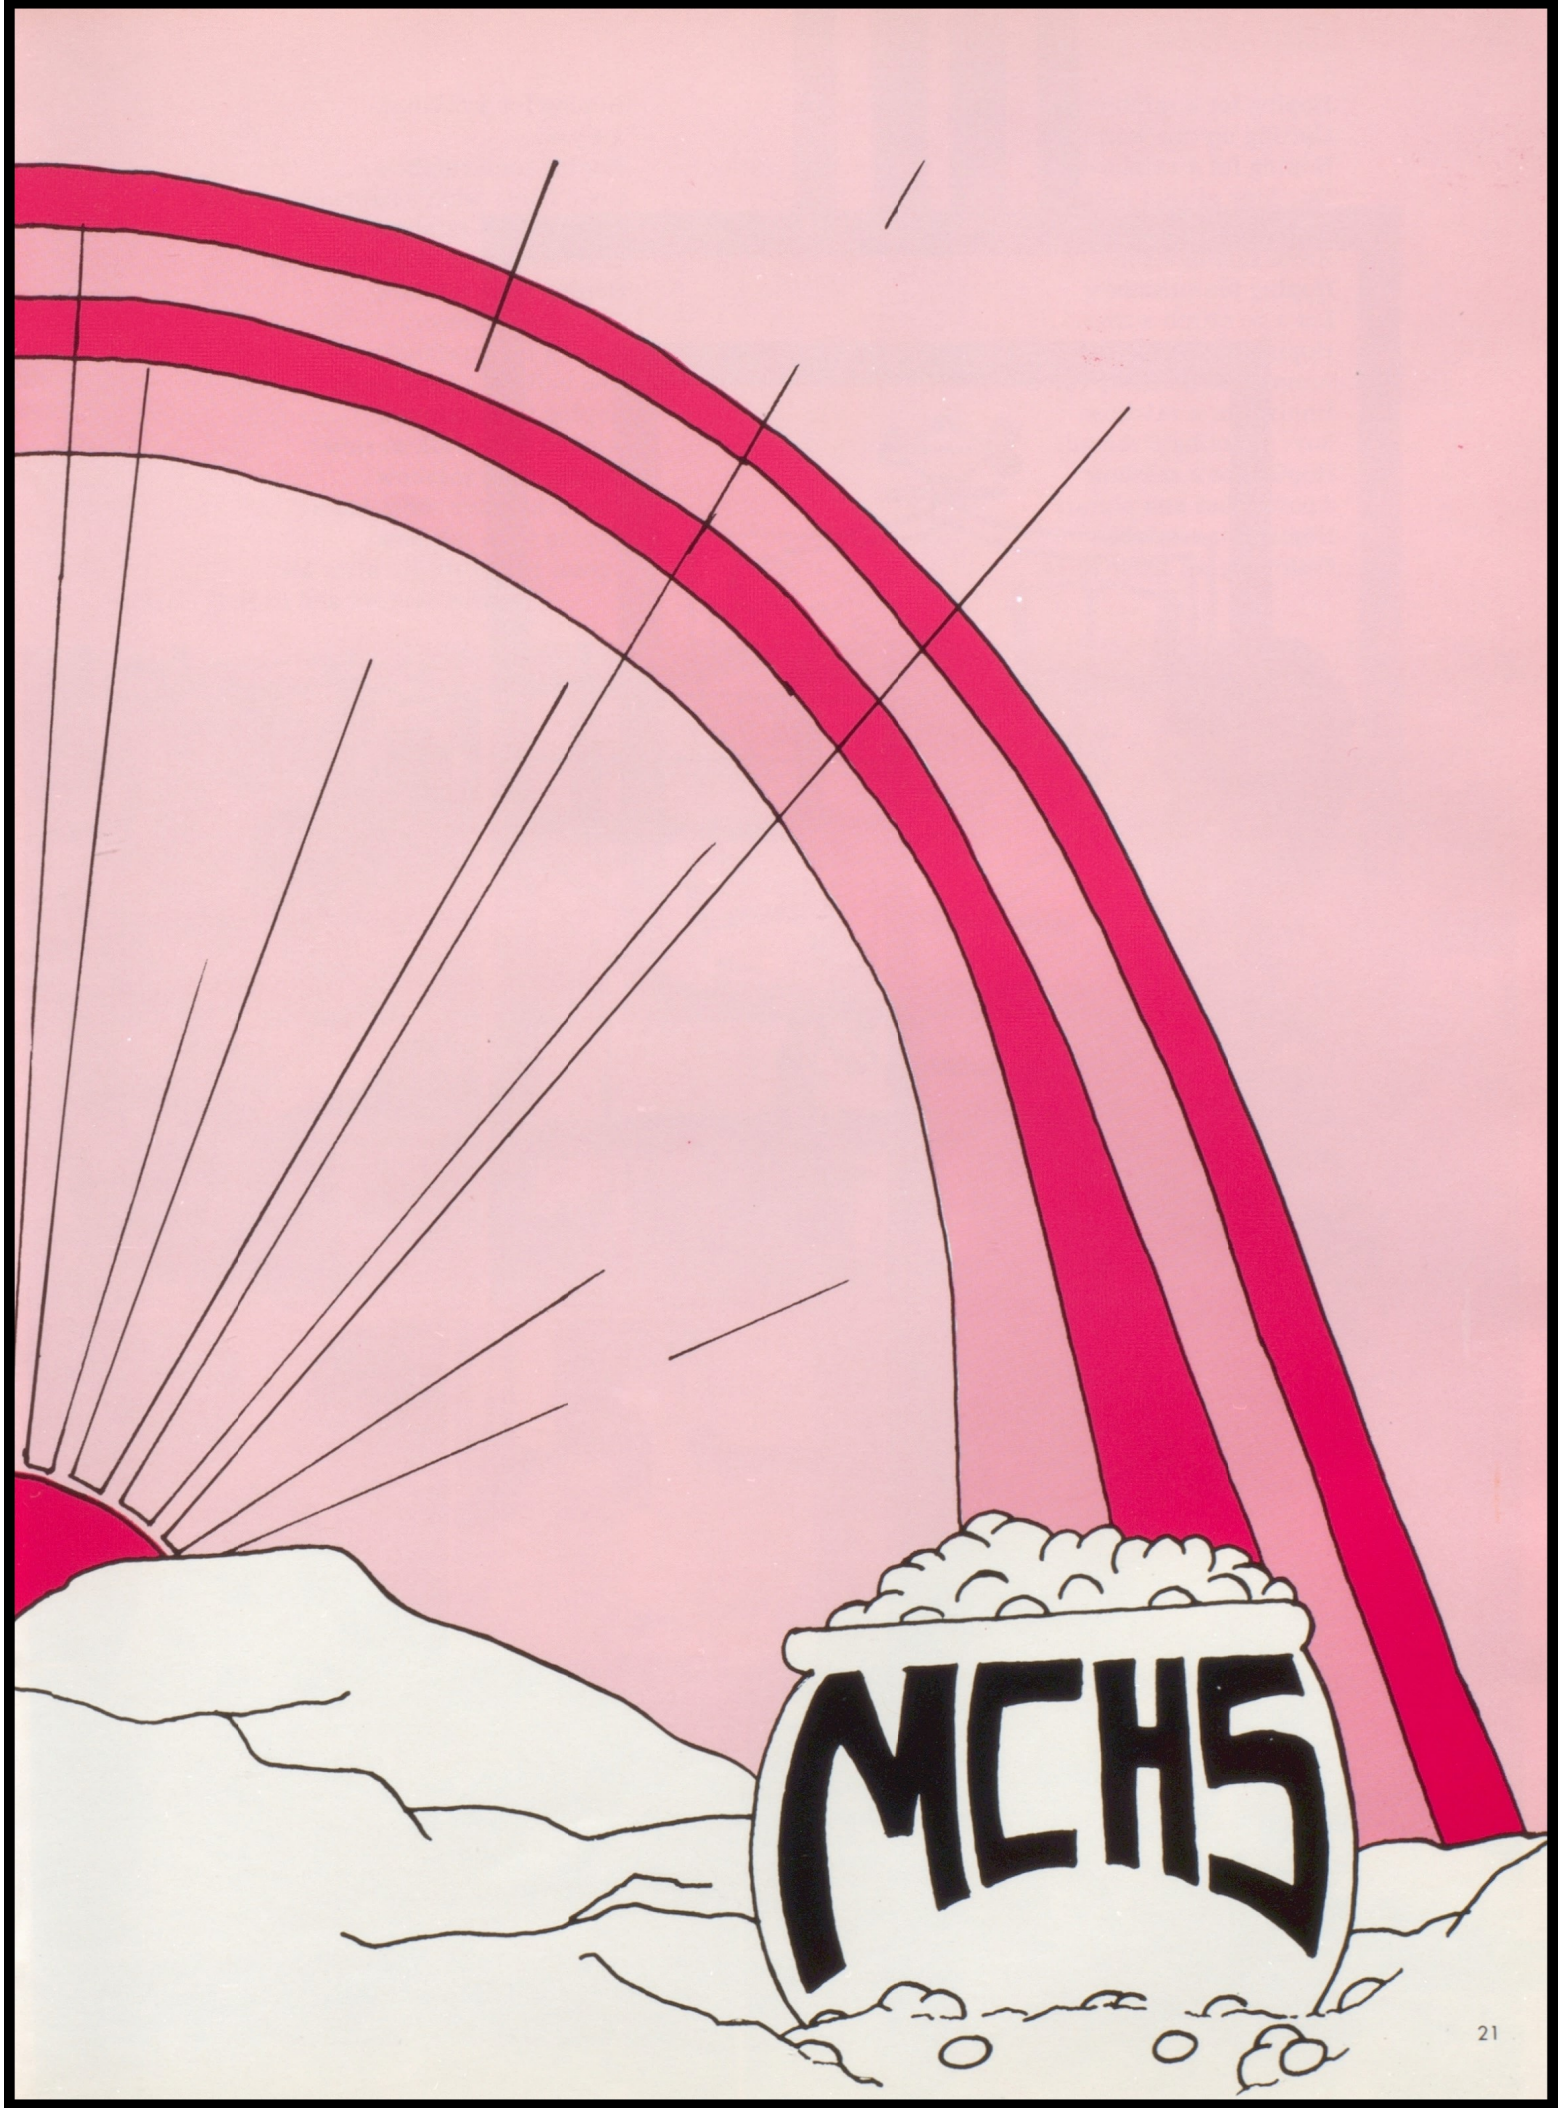
1. Even with all of the anticipation of school activities, Mr. Slone still finds it hard to wake up.
2. Students invade Mr. Kays to obtain admittance slips for past absences.
3. Cecilia Pulliam arranges the absentee slips in order before they can be typed.
4. The smoothest area in the school building is seized by James Woodrum and Jay Brown to take a morning nap.
5. Mrs. Murray uses the morning solitude to plan the day's activities.
6. Late bus riders are instructed by Mr. Gash as to the proper check-in procedures.
7. Roger Pierce finds relief from the morning blahs, courtesy of the gym bleachers.

PURSUIT



MCHS

Hoping for a rainbow
Cutting up this worm
Hoping for a rainbow
Oo, look at that germ.
Hoping for a rainbow
Amos sure hates me.
Hoping for a rainbow
Let's go climb a tree.
Hoping for a rainbow
Jump those hurdles, you fool.
Hoping for a rainbow
Boy, I sure hate school.
Hoping for a rainbow
Apostrophes and plurals
Hoping for a rainbow
Following all those rules.

Hoping for a rainbow
$x + y = z$
Hoping for a rainbow
Good Lord, what's happened to me?
Hoping for a rainbow
Demonstrations due tomorrow
Hoping for a rainbow
Oh, what a horror.
Hoping for a rainbow
The bell, it's time to go
Hoping for a rainbow
Why do they walk so slow?
Hoping for a rainbow
I have to leave these halls
Hoping for a rainbow
I guess it's worth it, after all.

What time is it?
Gotta pencil I can borrow?
But that's 15 pages!
What did I do with that paper?
Alright - who threw it?
When did they break up?
Today? I thought it was tomorrow?
May I go to my locker?
Here she comes! Look busy!
Did we win last night?
Late again?
What time is it?
She went out with who?
May I go to the restroom?
I wish he'd shut up.

Hamburgers again?
Julius Caesar!
My locker's stuck . . . again.
Written it? I haven't read the BOOK yet!
What'd SHE SAY?
Are you going?
That's not funny!
But I've already got enough homework . . . for 8 people!
And THEN, 15 of us got in that little car!
I KNOW we've been in here longer than that!
But, I wasn't talking!
What a day . . .
Spent - Hoping for a Rainbow.

The Athlete

Hoping for a rainbow,
We try awfully hard.
We're sweatin', we're hurtin',
All for our cause.
We have to get prepared,
Trying and failing,
Trying again.

Maybe one day we'll do it,
We'll go all the way.
Hoping for a rainbow,
Trying not to cry.
It hurts, it really hurts,
To see it all go by.

Seniors Leave With High Hopes for the Future

The 1976-77 Varsity Basketball season got off to a good start with three wins in the first three games. The team ended its season with an 11-15 record. Both Marty Pulliam and Joey Milburn scored 42 points individually in a game this season, tying Wayne Morris for the most points scored in a game. The score of 107 in the Burgin game became the new school record for the highest game score. The team played Burgin in the District Tournament and advanced to the finals where they were defeated by Jessamine County. They went to the Regional Tournament as District Runner-up, but were defeated in the first round by a powerful Henry Clay squad. The team will lose four seniors this year: Marty Pulliam, Joey Milburn, James Woodrum, and Mark Huffman. All these players have contributed much to basketball at Mercer and will be greatly missed next season.

Varsity Cheerleaders Are District Champs Once Again

During the summer, the cheerleaders attended a Cheerleading Clinic at U. of K. They received three superior ratings and one excellent. There were quite a few injuries this year, but everyone made it through the season. Winning first place in the District Competition the highlight of this year.

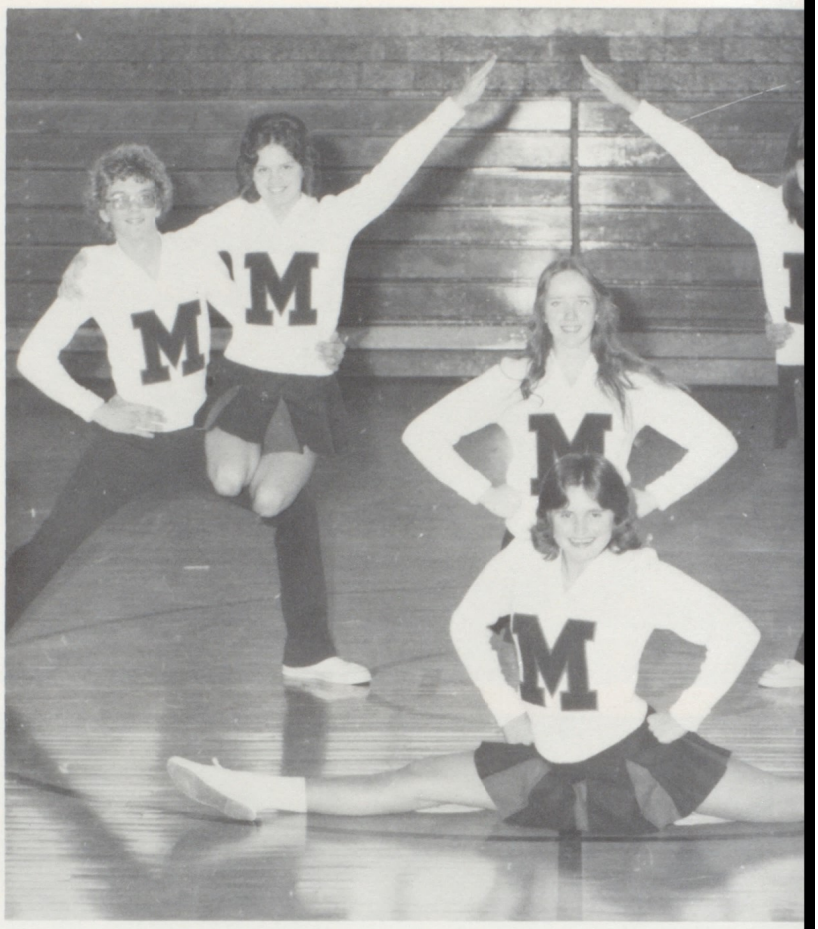
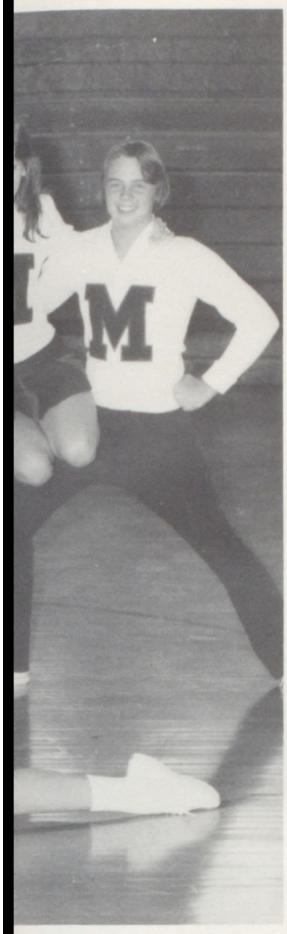
Mercer Cheerleading Experiences Two Firsts

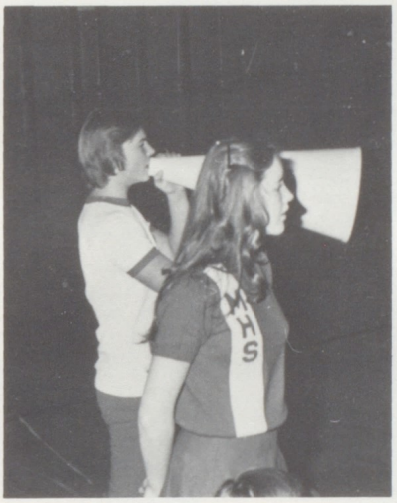
Mercer students experienced two firsts this year. A Girls' Cheerleading Squad was formed this year to cheer for the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team. Also for the first time this year, Mercer County had two male cheerleaders on the floor supporting school spirit.

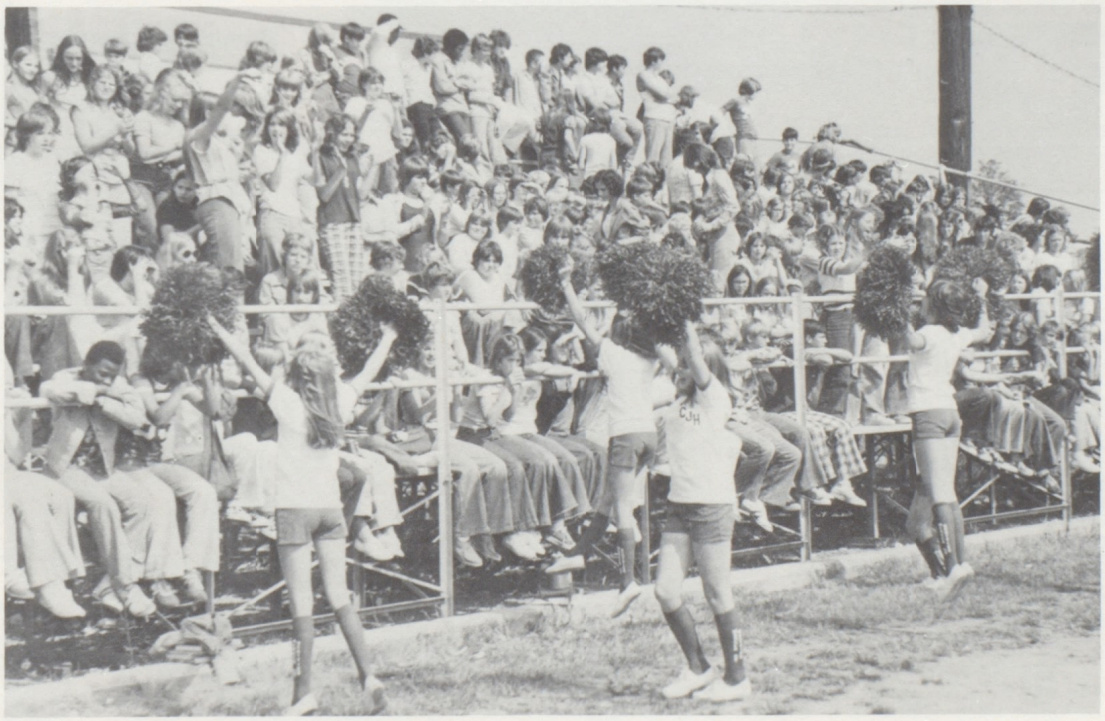


The 1977 girls' cheerleading squad consisted of Scott Bivins, Angie Hamlin, Romona Bowen, Brent Newby, Cathy Stinnett, Tina Goodlett.

The 1977 jr. high cheerleading squad consisted of Debra Sexton, Leesa Newby, Teresa Parham, Mrs. Grubbs (sponsor) Lisa Jones, Kim Tolliver, Rita Mobley.







Precious are the times we share,
With love, happiness and laughter in the air
Games and parties are so much fun,
We'll really miss them when the summer comes.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Starts Off With a Spirit Explosion

Many activities were held in celebration of homecoming. The powder puff game was played Thursday night before the game on Friday and again, the senior girls claimed the victory. On Friday October 8, students held their annual mini-parade in which floats from different clubs and classes were displayed. Also, there was a giant poster contest which was won by the sophomores. The eighth grade won the spirit stick which is awarded every year for each class's participation in the pep rally. To top off the day, the cheerleaders made a thermometer type construction that measured the amount of cheering from the audience. When the spirit explosion finally occurred, Kevin Meredith got a pie in the face.

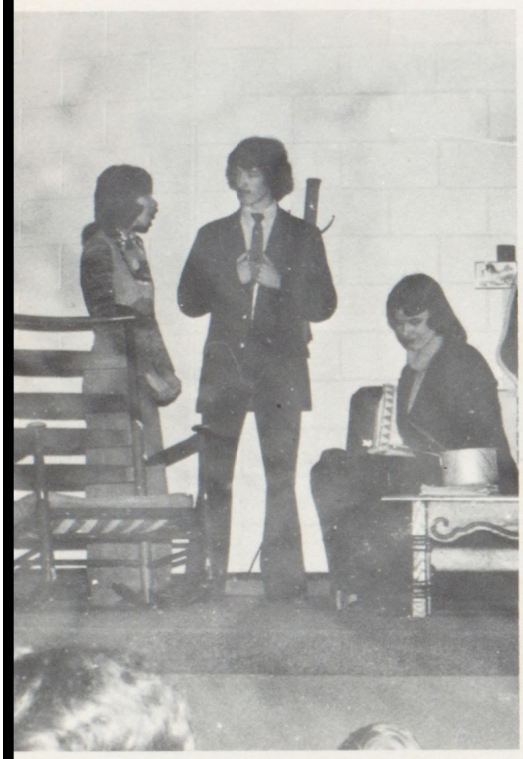
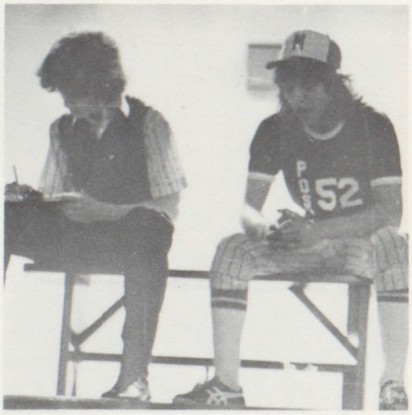
Scotties "Hustle" but Lose Heartbreaker in Overtime

Homecoming came and went much the same way it has in past years. Great enthusiasm was shown by both team members and spectators. However, the Scotties were unable to maintain a lead and lost the game in a disheartening overtime. Although the game was not a victory everyone enjoyed the festivities. Homecoming queen candidates were Patty Mink, Terry Bentley, Cecilia Pulliam, Sharyn Hahn, and Sherry Goodpaster. Attendants were Kim Tolliver, Kim Murphy, Tammy Yeager, Sherri Votaw, and Rita Mobley. Cecilia Pulliam and Steve Brogle were crowned homecoming queen and king. After the game, students enjoyed dancing to the music of Abraham Rush at the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Pep Club.

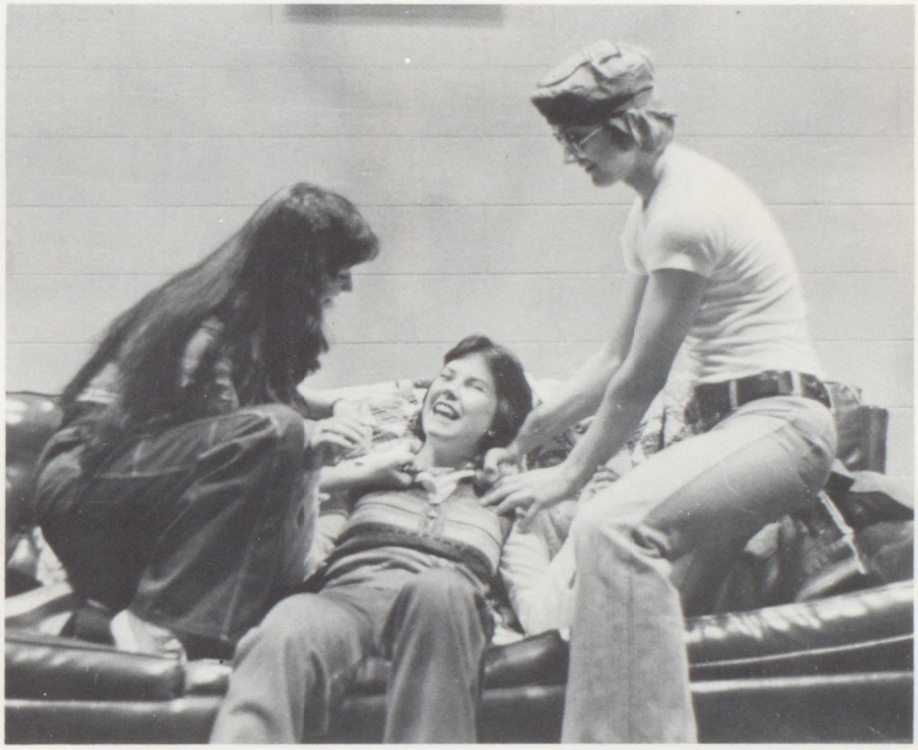
Christmas Vacation Lasts a Month?



With the coming of Christmas, students became excited about the many activities that they would be participating in. The front bulletin board was again decorated by teacher's aides. Also, many plays were presented by the drama class. Brenda Thompson was selected as Salvisa's Snow Queen. To brighten up the cafeteria, the art class put up colorful decorations. While we were decorating inside, decorative snow was falling outside. Because of this, Christmas vacation was extended for a month and ballgames and other activities were postponed.



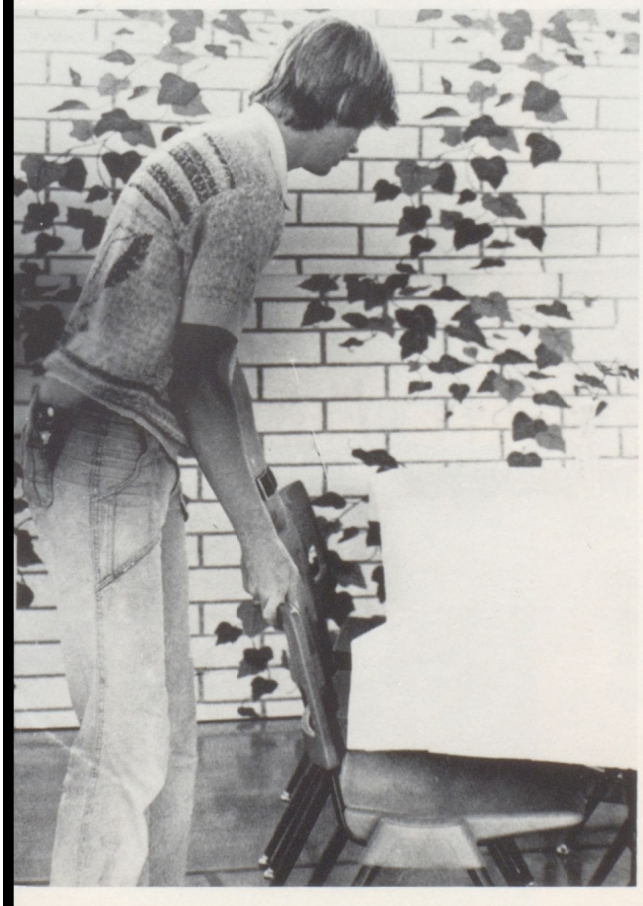
Drama Class Provides Spring Entertainment



In the spring, drama students participated in plays for a variety of audiences. Many hours were spent practicing for these plays. Tamie Graves enchanted the elementary school children with her role as a sorcerer, while Karen Preston fitted right in as a cautious little girl. Robbie Huffman and Edd Flynn performed "Who's On First" for junior high students. On April 15 and 16, Sherry Goodpaster, Tina Ransdell, Lorrie Logue, and Denise Buffin starred in an evening performance of a serious one-act play entitled "Distant Thunder." On the same nights, Tammy Spaulding, Betty Lawson, and David Taasaas presented a humorous play entitled "Conspiracy of Angels."

Junior Class Brings Prom Back to High School and Makes It a Success

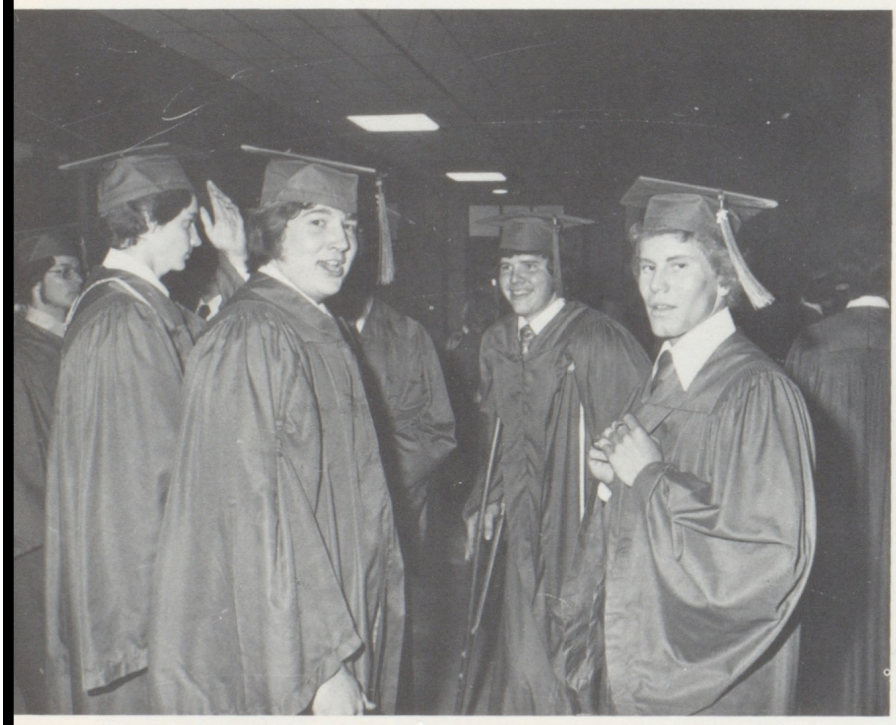
The junior class did an outstanding job decorating for this year's prom. Terry Rousey and Arthur Fulton tried their hands at hanging streamers and flowers. Joe Bentley made sure the tables were in order, while Shelley Jackson concentrated her attention on wall papering. Jim Benge and Robert Ballard helped with the letters spelling the theme "This One's For You." Janet Abner and Cindy Taggart created glittering letters for the band, Feather. The summer house decorated by Bill Tolliver, Lorrie Logue, and Kathy Cannon, was the setting for prom pictures.

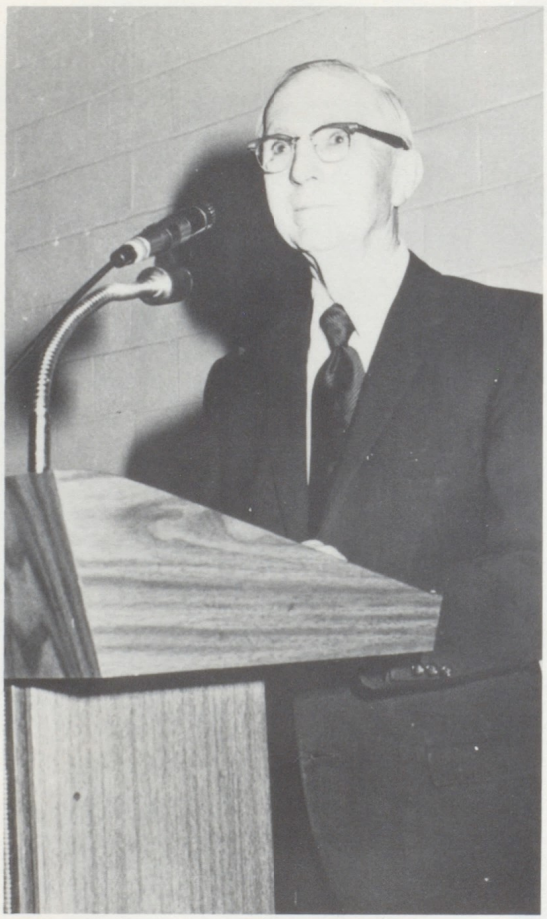


"This One's For You" Is Theme for 1977 Prom

This year the junior-senior prom, held on Saturday, April 30, was a big success. Students and sponsors enjoyed themselves dancing to the music of Feather and eating refreshments provided by the junior class. Serving the refreshments were sophomore Beta Club members. During the prom, the king and queen were crowned. The queen candidates were Vicky Humphrey, Kathy Darland, Susan Huffman, and Cecilia Pulliam. Cecilia Pulliam and Bobby Long reigned as prom royalty.

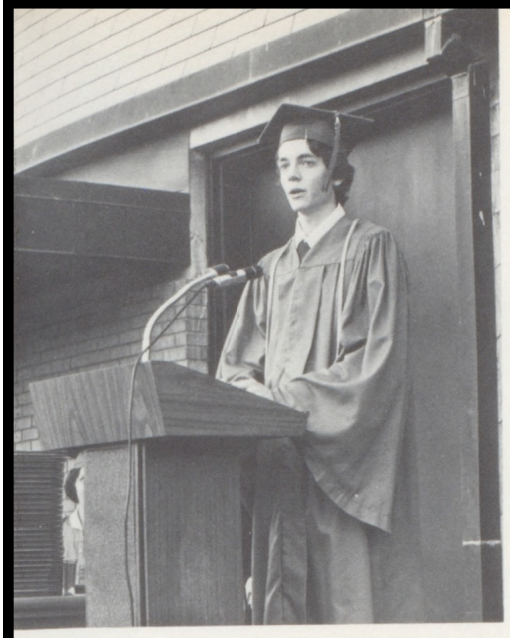
Rev. Gilbert Shely Speaks on the Theme "Be Great" at Baccalaureate





Baccalaureate was held on Sunday night, May 29, in the gymnasium. There was much preparation made for this special and solemn occasion. Tammy Spaulding and Karen Preston helped in giving out caps and gowns on May 20. On baccalaureate night, friends assisted each other, making sure collars were straight and caps and tassels were in order. David Carey, Kenny Stratton, Roger Pierce, and Bill Staples checked their appearances, while Janet Lester and Debbie King succeeded in making Janet's cap secure. The music started and silently, the seniors filed in. Mrs. Broadwater sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Patty Mink sang "He" before Reverend Gilbert Shely delivered his message.

Seniors Produce and Present Their Own Graduation



This year, the seniors created their own graduation program and participated in it. To start the program, on Wednesday, June 1, Sherry Goodpaster offered the prayer. Then, Patty Hembree read a poem she wrote about graduation. The valedictorian, David Carey, gave a speech recounting memories of the past school years and challenging the class members to make their future a happy one. Neila Logue and Susan Kidd sang "Nadia's Theme," which was very appropriate to the occasion. Also, the "Theme From Mahogany" was sung by Terry Bentley. The words of Terry's song touched many of us and made us contemplate on the past, present, and future. Although the seniors were in most of the program, Mr. Gash and Mr. King played prominent roles in presenting diplomas. Pictured receiving her well-deserved diploma, is Cheryl Coy, salutatorian. The ushers, also, will not be forgotten, for they had an important part in the commencement program. The ushers were Jane Horn, Betty Lawson, Arthur Fulton, David Parham, Sonja Newman, Karen McGuire, Terry Rousey, and Brookie Peavler.

We would like to thank all of our advertisers who helped make this yearbook possible. They played a very important role in this year's Highlander. We, also, offer our thanks to the Harrodsburg Herald for the use of some of their pictures. Our thanks go to Mr. John Hockersmith for his time and talents. We know that the time and effort everyone contributed will now seem all worth while.

Hoping for a rainbow
Wishing on a star
Walking down life's pathway
Dreaming from afar
Tomorrow is full of promise
Though yesterday I cried
Today the rain is falling
Tomorrow the sun may shine

Life is filled with rainbows
But it has its share of clouds
Today I'll hold my head up high
Tomorrow it may be bowed
Hoping for a rainbow
Yesterday is past
Tomorrow will be better
I'll have found myself at last.
- Karen McGuire

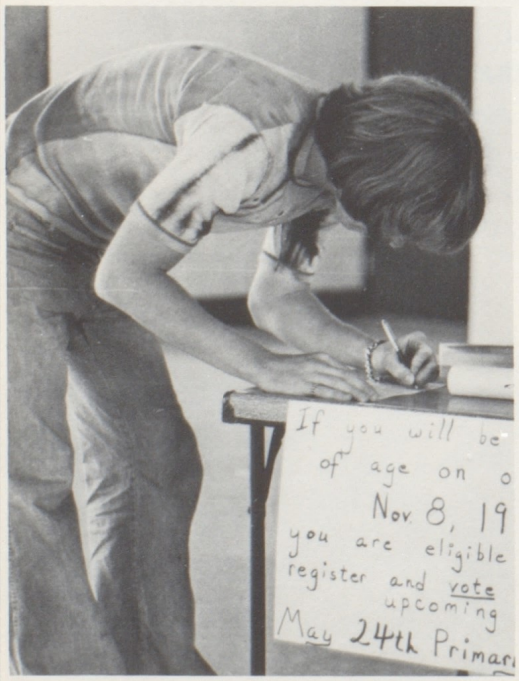
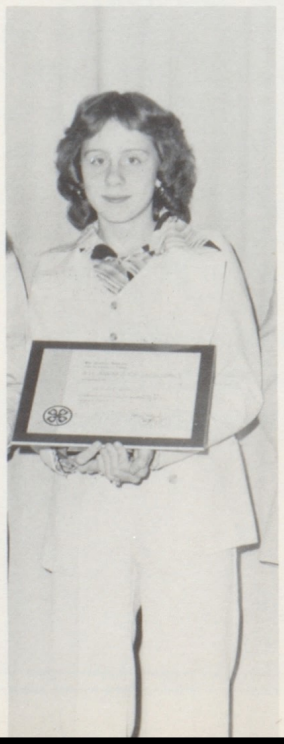
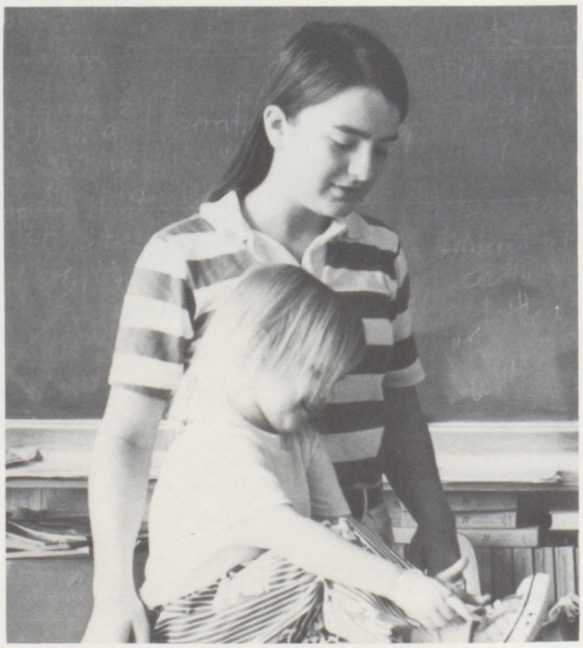
Candidates anxiously await the decision on who will be selected as next year's cheerleaders.



Ricky Lewis takes an opportunity to register to vote.





Debbie Yates demonstrates how to dress and care for a young child.

Edie Cooper finishes in third place for the state in the 4-H Speech composition.

Berlin Goins helps construct the greenhouse for the school's use.

Looking, wondering, hoping, praying . . .
We made our own rainbows.
— Anna Reed

Angela Whitenack was given a receipt for a free annual by Mrs. Noel for writing the best poem to be put in this year's HIGHLANDER.

Robert Ballard and Jim Benge conjure up a humorous way of giving the afternoon announcements.

As the seniors practice for graduation, they realize they will soon be on their own.

As the hallways are emptied, students looked into the future "hoping for a rainbow."
