First State Bank of Junction City &c vs
The Lowry Grocery Company
&c et al

Deft
order

Deft =

D. Lee Lowry, Master Commissioner of Mercer Circuit Court, and Receiver in above case, comes and reports that among the assets of the Lowry Grocery Company, that has come to his hands are 4 notes, each dated 23 Aug 1903 - each payable to Lowry Gro Company, & each signed by A. L. Lowry - each note for $500 - one due 5 months after date one due Six months after date, one due Ten months after date & one due Eleven months after date That on the back of one of said notes, to wit the one due 5 months after date, there was endorsed several credits ten in number, all amounting to the sum of $298.41 all of said credits were endorsed on said note before said note came into the hands of said Receiver, except credit of $24.26 that when said Receiver received said notes from the Lowry Gro Co, there was attached to said notes, Six Certificates of stock issued by A. L. Lowry Grocery Company, each certificate dated 25th Jan 1904, signed by A. L. Lowry President, and issued to A. L. Lowry, each of said Certificates was for 5 Shares stock of par value of $100 - in the A. L. Lowry Grocery Company - said certificates were Numbered, 5 - 6 7 8 9 10, and that said A. L. Lowry endorsed same to said Lowry Grocery Company as collateral security for said 4 notes aforesaid