Vs-

Petition-

Maria Wilson-

Dft-

The plaintiff and affiant, Mary Marshall, states that the property claimed by her in this action is a marble top center table and a leather bottom rocker. If the defendant pays the value of the property plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant for the value of about $15.00; if he is of a dark color and if not the sum of the value of about $15.00; if he is of a dark color and if not then the defendant wrongfully detains and is possessing wrongfully the property. It is now in possession of the defendant and is possessing it wrongfully. It was not taken under an order of the court, nor under an attachment, execution or distress. Plaintiff is entitled to the immediate possession of said property and to $25.00 damages for its retention. It was not taken under an order of the court, nor under an attachment, execution or dis-
mediate possession of said property and to $25.00 damages for its retention. Plaintiff prays for a judgment against the defendant for the return of the property, if it can be returned and if not returnable for the value of the property, if it is of a dark color and if not the sum of the value of about $15.00; if it is of a dark color and if not
