JUNIOR CLASS GIVES PLAY

The stage is all set for the presentation of the lively comedy, "A Widow in Green" by Lea Freeman, which is being presented by the Junior Class of La Verne College on Friday night, Nov. 15 at 8:00 p.m. The cast has been hard at work on this play for several weeks and promise an evening of entertainment and laughter for everyone. Miss Virginia Massey, who takes the title role is a newcomer to L.V.C, having had dramatic experience both in Pomona High School and Junior College. She plays the character of Sue, a sweet little old maid. Mr. Thomas Shannon is played by George Steele as a man "very much" about town. Then there are Angelica and Henry, the House Servants played by Vivien Saul and Alfred Basten. No one will be able to keep from laughing when Don Verbeck as the Vicar twitches his way into the room, and Lady Rumley (Dorothy Frantz) huffs her way out. Then just imagine if you can, Maurine Moomaw and Tom Carter as the Harkness Girl and the Whitford Boy who furnish atmosphere for Miss Sue's proposal. Mrs. Paddy who does her best with her raspberry tarts is played by Doris Beckner.

The characters alone would keep the audience roaring, but when they get all tangled up in the most extraordinary situations, laughter is uncontrollable. All of you who love fun, set aside the date, Friday, November 15 at 8:00 for the laugh of your life.

COLLEGE STUDENT INJURED ON FIELD TRIP

Mary Ellen Lapp was quite seriously hurt last Friday during a Biology field trip to Camp Baldy. She was riding with two or three other girls on the rear end of Mr. Hollenberg's car. When the car turned a corner, she slipped and fell from the car, striking her head on the pavement. She received a fracture of the skull. The doctor said she would probably have to stay out of school for at least six months. She has not yet regained full consciousness for any length of time, but she wakes up at times and talks a little.

LEOPARDS MEET CALTECH SAT.

Coach Garry Arbelbide and his La Verne Leopards tangle with Fox Stanton's Caltech Engineers next Saturday afternoon on Arnett Field for what promises to be one of the most exciting games scheduled in the conference this week.

Both teams go out on the field Saturday rated with equal terms of victory. On paper, the Leopards might be a slight favorite, having won two games to the Engineers none, but the performance of Stanton's boys in last week's game with the Pomona Sagehens, could rate the Technology men a two touchdown favorite over the Arbelbides. Arbelbide stated that he and his men are expecting as hard a game as they have had this season from the engineers.

The Leopards seemed to have improved somewhat this last week when they took the S.C.Spartans to the cleaners and beat them 13-6. This was their second win of the season, having defeated Pomona J.C. in an early game. These two victories for La Verne haven't been from real college teams, consequently the Leopards will be pointing hard for Caltech this Saturday afternoon.

All in all the whole La Verne squad has improved steadily from game to game. Last week some individual performances of some of the Leopards were outstanding. Carl Walsh, full back and high scorer of the team,

EDITORIAL

At last we are to have a school paper. Doubts were plentiful in the minds of most of the Associated Students until recently. The quality and quantity, however, of this publication is yet to be decided. These will vary directly with the enthusiasm, ambition, and ability of the staff, and with the support of the student members.

Who can picture a successful school without a school paper, a college without a sense of unity a college without an organ of self-expression; in other words, a chool without any school spirit? Those of us who have started THE CAMPUS TIMES feel as though we can serve the school better in this way than any other way. It seems to us that there is a need, and when there's a need and an accompanying method of satisfying that need, we feel as though we should avail ourselves of that method. We have realized that many things have happened about the Campus to many of our school mates that have gone unnoticed or unrelated. For instance, how many of you knew that the Frosh practiced for the mudroll, or that they had a whoopee party after the mudroll, or that there was a near riot behind the bleachers last Fri. night between some rebellious Mexicans and our own powerful guardsmen, or that some sneaking villian "copped" all the girls' toothbrushes in the Dorm,

SCRATH

Ding a ling a ling--three grunts and a squeal! Just like a merry-go-round, around rolls the time for dirt, blood, scandal, and ahem! culture. And are you going to have a real newspaper? And How.! especially with Frances Kitchback as censor.

Taking a peek at the hen's feather down, I see plenty of paper, if not news. Boy, oh boy! When you read the features pick on Glenna McLean, not me. I do nothing---just edit. WE are going to smack right start off with some wind, wooley contests--and how. There will be some prizes for brain twister riddles, tacked on especially for Fletch Hornbaker. At least we imagine he'll take the prize. All you redheads and pretty women take care---you're going to be spotted, and when somebody steals Roscoe Vanlman's diary, then we'll have to have a new censor.

huff--puff--g...--it's two minutes till the deadline---Get out of my way.

SCRATCHO.

Why was [redacted] certain teacher at the dorm "Open House" on Tuesday? Reliable report says that he was picking fleas off his chickens.------Willard Mc Daniels: "Yep, I had a beard like yours once, and when I realized how it made me look, I cut it off, t'gosh." Al Eisan: "I had a face like yours once, and when I realized that I couldn't cut it off, I grew this beard, By Heck!"--------

Advice to the love-lorn one: Don't worry, Mary Heffner, he'll come around if you quit mothering Johnny Landis.-------

Oh, ye fair maden visitors of Miller Hall, with the big feet, who come calling while the matron is out. Also remember, boys, don't play with matches; you might get your fingers burned.------Gladden Boaz says, "I hear that Glenna McLean goes in spurts."------Husband(Bill Fisher) annoyed: "Another new hat, aren't you taking liberties without budget?" Wife(Koch) "Why no, dear. You know we made a liberal allowance for overhead expenses."

SENIOR-SOPH PARTY

Treasure and pirates created the atmosphere of the Senior-Soph party held last night under the full moon.

All guests, dressed as pirates met at a secret rendezvous on the turf at 7:00 to await orders. The pirate gang then divided into four groups for the search of the buried treasure. At the close of the hunt everyone met at the 'Wash where camp fires lit up the night. Here games and the rewards of the search were distributed.

OPEN HOUSE

Tuesday afternoon, from 4:30 till 5:30 all the dorm girls were on their good behavior, doing their best to polish the apple without appearing to do so. Every room in the dorm was so fresh and clean that they could not be recognized as belonging to their rightful owner. The reason? Just this-it was Faculty Open House tea After each girl had done her best to entertain the faculty and their wives in their own rooms, tea and dainty sandwiches were served in the lobby. From all reports the rooms and the lobby were spic and span. Just wait, fellows, it's yourturn next time.

Jimmy Thornton was disturbed at his studying Sun. evening when a group of his friends surprised him on his birthday at the home of Miss Edna Phillips. Peppy games were led by Janet Brink while Ralph Travis led the group in singing.

A gifty was presented to Jimmy by the following group: Misses Head, Brink, Grober, Burnett, Mc Lean, Harding, Gladys Hall, and Phillips. Also the Messrs. Paul and George Brink, Ebersole, Willman, Way, Travis, and Mr. and Mrs. La Follette.

A day full of surprises marked Sat. Nov. 8, for Nondus Stump, who was honored by friends on her birthday at her home in Lomita. Most of the day was spent in Redondo Beach plunge and playing ping-pong. In the evening moving pictures were shown of Europe. A beautifully decorated and delicious dinner was served to the guests. Friends surprising Nondus were the Misses Hornbaker, Deal, Brownsberger, Kneeland, and the Messrs. Boaz, Brink, Ebersole, Fox and Willman.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

Were you at the Assoc. Students meeting on Friday? If not, you don't know what you missed. With Maurine leading us we sang our song "Guide of La Verne".

The main feature of the meeting was a play given by the Chi Delta Chi. The cast included: Henrietta Brewster Margery Lindquist; Mabel, her sister, Helen Brownsberger, and Stephen Brewster Ralph Smeltzer. The play afforded us many a laugh, and we can't decide whether it was presented for the purpose of giving us many a lesson in barnyard behavior or to show us why husbands leave home.

I. R. C.

The International Relations Club conducted the chapel service Thurs., Nov. 7. Those speaking were the Misses June Walker, Mary Blocher, Maurine Looman, and Mrsrs. Norlyn Dull, Roscoe Vaniman, Don Verbeck, and Merlin Eisenbise, who had attended the International Relations Conference at Claremont.

Tuesday the I.R.C. presented Dr. Cranston of Redlands U., who also spoke on international problems of today. After reviewing briefly the circumstances of the last World War, he discussed the attitude of the individual in case of war. Although he believes it unlikely that another great World War will occur, he said that, in any event, the individual must judge for himself what he will do. Later he was guest of the club at a lunch in the park.

MEDITATION

By the clear, crystal, mountain lake
Is a quiet place for the soul to rest
And there I meditate.

I see the lake as a mirror,
It reflects the beautiful snow-
capped peaks,
The nearby trees and hills,
As the evening star draws the
shades of night,
I marvel at the watery scene of the brilliant, heavenly light.
Suddenly a shift of wind brings turmoil to the water.
Waves are dashing, splashing,
crashing,
And the restlessness continues
till the calm.

To me the lake resembles life.
When calm.
We reflect good qualities and
beauty of character;
When storms o'er take us,
We are shipwrecked, fearful,
struggling for that absent
help
Until we hear the quiet voice,
"Peace, be Still."
Thus nature speaks,
Reminding us of God, the Creator.

or that Tom Carter has to kiss Maurine Moomaw five times in the Junior play, etc. etc. How many of you students knew these things? Hereafter it will be our purpose to make known such vital and important events.

The CAMPUS TIMES has a notable staff. Some of the members have served on papers previously while others are without a great deal of experience, but with an insatiable desire to write and receive the thrill of viewing their "write-ups" in printed form.

Let's give a toast to a great CAMPUS TIMES!

scorer of the team, played a bang-up game of football against the Spartans. Capt. Glover, left half and outstanding player for the Leopards, played his usual great game on defense--Babe Eisan, Andy Anderson, and Bob Haines are others that turned in nice performances. Arbelbide says that he has some new plays cooked up for Caltech that would be entirely different from those used against the Spartans. Probable starting line-ups:

LA VERNE DOWNS SPARTANS

Coach Garret Arbelbide's fighting Leopards downed the heavy S.C.Spartans last Friday nite on Arnett field by a score of 13-7. Carl Walsh, sensational fullback scored twice in the second period, once by a pass from Babe Eisan and again from the one-yard line by a buck.

In the beginning of the second quarter the La Verne eleven opened up in a new attack and scored from their own forty yard line in seven plays. Later in the same period, Captain Howard Glover intercepted a flat Spartan pass and raced to the Spartan one yard line, where Walsh scored on the first play making the score 13e0. During the second half, the Spartans scored seven points.

W.A.A.

Five members of the W.A.A. took a hike to the five mile point in San Dimas Canyon after school Monday, November 11. They are planning a moonlight hike to Pudding Stone Dam on Sat. nite, November 16.

Those girls hiking were Gladys Yoder, Margaret Grant, Laura Cheesman, Lucille Gregory, and Lois Myers.

Girls, come out to soccer practise tonight at 4:15!
