LEOPARDS AND SAGEHENS BATTLE TODAY

College I. R. C. Lays Plans for Conference On Armistice Day

Bud Henzie, in a speech to the International Relations Club meeting Tuesday evening at the home of President Davis, related the most outstanding features of the German, Italian and Czechoslovakian countries.

"As a rule," he stated, "it was surprising to find the people of Germany so peaceful, calm and satisfied while their whole life is strictly regimented and war-like politically."

Bud, in company with two companions, cycled through the principal countries of Europe this summer. By lodging at the many youth hostels, they came into close contact with the actual attitudes and beliefs of the younger people of these countries.

"From the time a young child is seven years of age in Germany," Bud said, "he becomes a strong salesman for Hitler. But," he added, "there are some undercurrents noticeable among the people both in Germany and in Italy which may cause some trouble." He suggested that the Italian people were very enthusiastic about Hitler, but that the German people did not show the same spirit toward Mussolini.

In concluding, Bud suggested a tour of Europe necessary for all students to better understand the problem of international peace, and to beter understand the fallacies that lie in their conceptions of the present status of Europe.

Pat Packard, as program chairman of the club, announced that November 11st has been chosen as the date for the International Relations Conference to be held at U.S.C. Representatives from the principal colleges of the Southland will discuss vital international problems.

Last Thursday the International Relations class and interested listeners were present at an important European conference meeting supposedly held inGodesberg. Such men as Premier Chamberlain, Papie, Daladier, Hitler, and Henlein, impersonated by class members, presented their own views and stands on the present European crisis. Gladden Boaz acted as chairman of the conference. Yesterday the conference was continued with Armen Sarafian as chairman. Daladier, Hitler, Chamberlain and others involved in the present "scare" reviewed the results of the recent Munich conference.

Formal Reception For New Students Held in Patio

New students and faculty members were given an opportunity to get acquainted at the annual Student-Faculty reception held in the patio on Thursday, September 29.

Thelma Shryer, chairman of the decorating committee, with the aid of the sophomore class, arranged the patio to represent a garden scene by the use of shrubbery, lath fencing and colored lights. All guests, upon arriving, were received at the garden gate and presented with unique colored booklets and pencils in order that they might get signatures of all the persons present. Members of the faculty and their wives formed the receiving line.

President Davis gave the introductory address, followed by a short talk from Hal Michael. Musical numbers on the program included a vocal selection by Professor Reed, a violin solo by Robert Walker, also of the faculty, and vocal solos by two students, Ruth Walker and Patricia Packard, accompanied by Professor Ralph Travis.

At the conclusion of the reception, refreshments of punch, cookies and candies were served by Dehlia Stanley and her junior committee.

Y.W.C.A Welcomes New Women Students At Opening Reception

A potluck dinner followed by a candlelight recognition service for all new women students was the first Y.W.C.A. event of the college year. More than seventy women gathered in the dining hall Tuesday, September 27, for an evening of fellowship and inspiration. During the dinner the members of the group enjoyed singing between courses.

After dinner the lighted candles and instrumental music as presented by Ada Fay McCune brought into the group a feeling of close harmony and purposefulness. In welcoming the new members, Frances Kutchback, president, gave a brief history of the organization and stated its aims. The group then sang the organization song, 'Follow the Gleam," which brought the meeting to a very fitting and impressive close.

This get-together was only the beginning of a full and eventful year that the cabinet has planned Besides the president, Frances Kutchback, the cabinet consists of Thelma Shryer, vice president; Marcia Vaniman, secretary; Kay Maley, treasurer; Madge Fischer, chairman of public welfare; Ada McCune chorister; and Edith Shick, pianist.

The next function, a week-end retreat to Camp Bethel, will be announced at a later date.

Hertzmen Underdogs In Annual Civil War On Claremont Grid

DOWN WITH CECIL SAGEHEN

That will be the battle cry of the wild and ferocious Leopards for their annual encounter with their Pomona valley rivals from Pomona College at Claremont. The kick-off is slated for 3:30 p.m. this afternoon on Alumni Field in Claremont.

Our Leopards will go into the fray as the underdog, and a very good one, too. However, underdogs have a peculiar habit of upsetting the dope bucket at intervals, and today may just as well be one of those days. So the Sage hens had better beware of the Leopard this afternoon.

The Green and Orange has gone without a football victory for so long that it is about time that the worm turned. Today is just as good a day as any to do the turning. How about it, gang?

Boys Ready

Coaches Paul Hertz and Louis Velasco have done all they could to prepare the squad for this game and the rest depends on the boys. This scrivener, for one, thinks that they can WIN today. Fight is the greater portion of football, and La Verne teams have always had it, but none like this year's grid squad.

Head Mentor Paul Hertz says, "The boys have the spirit and ability to do a great deal of damage today. We haven't had quite enough practice, but I, for one, believe in the boys."

Hopes for an upset rest primarily upon stalwarts in the forward wall. Although light, they are fast, hard charging, fighting fools, who don't know when they are licked. They will give a good account of themselves against the strong and bulky Sagehen line. Tackles Jim Bradley and Garland Mendenhall should do quite a bit towards stopping the Pomona ground attack. Bob Deal, Wayne Hanawalt, Bruce Reeves and Ray Burkhart exhibited an uncanny aptitude for smearing fullbacks in the Chaffey game.

A great deal depends upon the sharp eyes and strong shoulders of center Dwight Hanawalt and quarterback Tony Scafani. Upon these two youngsters rests the task of stopping plunging Jack Merritt, spearhead of the Sagehen attack, if he breaks through the line, which we hope will be never.

—DORM— DAMES D-O-I-N-G-S

There have been so many things to do that the girls have hardly gotten organized, but with Fella-ship Hall and Rosebud Seminary still represented in the Dorm we can promise that it won't be long now until things begin to happen.

The lower floor began the social events of the year with a party for Ada Faye's birthday. It was a little early, but all the cellar rats were there, not to forget a few from the upper regions. Then the main floor came across with a watermelon bust. Holmes and Edith were hostesses. Not to be outdone, the third floor held up its honor. On Monday night these brilliant artists held a practice hour of music, supposedly for the coming Artist Course. Mother Holsinger arrived when there was only standing room left. (Do you suppose the chapel committee could use them on a program?)

The Sophs have helped get rooms in order by personally rearranging every loose article found in the Frosh rooms. May the Frosh profit by this splendid example. It's only right to say here that Archie Reeves would have done a better job helping the girls hang curtains, but Jim Bradley kept calling him. Guess he wanted in too— Can't we find some work for him to do, girls?

Off-campus girls should remember to make themselves feel at home in the Dorm. If you are in doubt as to how to do this, just watch Hildegarde.

Sundays will soon be "open house" for all the fellows, so you'd better be extra nice to us. See you then.

FROSH-SOPHOMORE MUD BATH SLATED FOR MONDAY P.M.

Proverbial antagonism between the freshman and sophomore classes will reach a climax in the annual Mud Roll to be held next Monday night on the college football field. Plans for the Mud Roll, as usual, include three major events, the sack race, the tug of war over the mud hole which is to be dug by the Freshmen fellows, and the greased pole climb.

Both classes are represented by a number of strong, husky fellows to do the dirty work, and plenty of enthusiastic girls to give them moral support. The sophomores, however, with the advantage of last year's experience, are favored to come out on top, though the freshmen are far from willing to concede the point.

Leopards Hold Chaffey Scoreless

By Tony Victor

Exhibiting a surprisingly strong forward wall, the LaVerne Leopards repelled the visiting Chaffey junior college eleven from Ontario in a scoreless battle on Arnett Field last Friday afternoon.

Bradley kicked off for the Leopards deep into Chaffey territory to start off the contest, and after a short runback, Chaffey attempted to powerhouse through the Green and Orange line, but to no avail.

First Opportunity

Midway in the first quarter Chaffey fumbled and the home boys recovered on the Panther 14 yard marker. Two fumbles set the Leopard gridders back to the 34 yard line and from there Wishey Ferrell kicked to the Chaffey 3 yard line. From this point the game seesawed back and forth with neither team holding much of an advantage.

The Leopards played straight football, using line plunges with a small sprinkling of spinners and cutbacks. Not much opportunity was afforded the Leopards to try their newly organized passing passing game. Those that were attempted failed to hit the mark.

Field Goal Try

LaVerne's best chance to score came in the last period when a surprise quick kick by Ferrell was fumbled and kicked around by the Chaffey safety man, and recovered simultaneously by Newcomer and Bradley on the Panther 18 yard line. Fischer hit over guard for two yards, followed by a fast snappy pass from Scafani to Ferrell, which was incomplete. A third down line play was stopped for no gain by the Panther line. On the last down the Leopards tried an angle field goal with Cottle holding and Ferrell kicking from the 25 yard stripe. The kick was long enough, but veered off to the right of the uprights. However, Chaffey was offside and the Green was given another chance to score. This time the Leopards lined up once more in place kick formation, but instead of kicking Ferrell passed to Scafani over the center of the Panther defense, but the pass was incomplete.

Chaffey started a drive down the field in the last few minutes of play, but it was cut short by the closing gun. A few fumbles were evident throughout the game, but this was not surprising for so early in the football season.

Outstanding Boys

D. Hanawalt played a good defensive game at center, as did Ketelsen, Newcomer and A. Reeves at ends.

Bradley and Mendenhall showed up well at tackle, while Deal, W. Hanawalt, Burkhart and B. Reeves exhibited a wealth of driving power offensively. The backfield was pretty well-balanced, with Scafani at quarter; Landis and Ferrell at half, and Fischer, fullback.

Outstanding for Chaffey were Bowman and Flannis, ends; Van Beak, tackle, and Terry, quarter.

By "Spots"

Well, here we are back for another year of the old grind. The frosh (some of them) are at last settling down so things are beginning to run a bit more smoothly. But they still insist on cutting capers now and then.

We hear that Big, Cruel Jim Bradley took Purity over to Pomona the other Saturday night and made her walk all the way home—Shame, Bradley.

Wanda Brubaker has started climbing out windows already to escape the multitude of fellows waiting for her in the lobby—Better watch out, Wanda. —And there is still a big-headed frosh wearing suspenders. What's the matter with the sophomores, anyway? Have the frosh really intimidated you?

We hear that Clinton had to bring Pauline in early Sunday afternoon so she could get ready to go out with Burkhart.—We're surprised at you, Clinton.

Ruth Walker was given the opportunity at dorm initiation to give ten reasons why she went with Bob Kurtz. This is what she said, "Because he has asked me ten times, I guess."

Johnny Landis seems to be turning over a new leaf.—At least we notice he is quite interested in the Pure and Upright ways.

Donna Eisenbise must be terribly tired these last few days. —She just can't seem to see enough of Davenport.

And from all we hear, "Doc" must be going to have a birthday soon. Happy birthday, dear Bailey, happy birthday to you.

Archie is evidently losing interest in his Dodge.—At least he has been taking out a Packard quite a bit lately.

Well, so long—We'll be seeing more of you next week—we hope.

"Spots."

WOMEN PLAN DORM OPEN HOUSE FOR MEN ON SUNDAYS

Fellows of LaVerne College are invited this year to spend Sunday afternoons in the dormitory lobby playing games and visiting in order that the students may have an opportunity to become better acquainted and enjoy mutual entertainment informally.

Each Sunday directly after dinner the fellows will be welcome to remain in the dormitory until five o'clock to engage in the activities and the entertainment that the girls are planning to provide for them.

Though in previous years the dormitory has had an occasional open house, it has never before been a regular Sunday afternoon feature as it will be this year. Students feel that they might arouse a greater spirit of friendship and cooperation through this activity, and it has been to achieve this that the Sunday afternoon arrangements have been made.

Hertzmen Underdogs In Annual Civil War

Pomona 35 yard marker, then La Verne can, and will score. Coach Paul Hertz has cooked up some nifty scoring plays that should work frequently. If a touchdown cannot be had, then "Wishey" Ferrell's educated toe will be called upon, and he has shown in practice that he can kick a field goal very easily from within the 35 yard line.

Passing will come in for its share of attention for the backs, —Ferrell, Scafani, Cottle and Jones can really throw that ball around. On the receiving end of their tosses will be dependable pass catchers in ends—Laverne Crites, Archie Reeves, Ingwer Ketelsen, Leland Newcomer—and backs Johnny Landis, Dal Fox and Bob Fischer.

The running game will be in evidence for the Leopards have speed to spare. "Powerhouse" Bob Fischer will do his share of line cracking and if he gets thru a hole, then LaVerne may have quite a bit to crow about before the day is over. Any one of the backs can and may break loose for a score, if the opportunity presents itself.

A team is helped a great deal by its rooting section, so this scrivener is making a plea for the support of the entire LaVerne student body and faculty at that game this afternoon, and bring all the noise-makers you can. You will have a chance to use them frequently, because those boys of yours are going out there to give all they have to bring back a victory for you, and YOU should do something to help them do so.

COLLEGE MAY ENTER CONFERENCE SCHEDULE AT ANY FUTURE DATE

Although LaVerne's resignation was accepted by the conference, we were given an invitation to come back at any time. This, Reitz said, will be possible if the reorganization plans are realized. Action to drop out, Reitz said, was taken at this time as the "only honorable thing to do."

The action also affected the basketball and baseball squads. But LaVerne will play both schedules with conference opponents as an independent college.

Miss Priscilla Platt and Miss Harriet Hall of Pomona College were Sunday guests of Miss Viva Strayer.
