Speech Dept. Presents Play For Chapel

"Peace I Give Unto You" is the name of the production to be given by the LaVerne College speech department during the chapel hour on Tuesday, Dec. 13.

The appealing story taken from the life of a peasant family tells how peace comes to this war torn group on Christmas eve.

In the cast are Joseph, Bill Crawford; Marta, Margaret Woy; Peter, Albert Hollinger; Alec, Orville Herr; soldiers, Cliff Brubaker and Elvin Ebersole.

A prologue to the play will be given by Eleanor Herrick, Madge Fischer, Catharine Miller, and Viva Strayer. A double quartette, under the direction of Prof. Ralph Travis, will sing. In the group are Ruth Walker, Pat Packard, Margaret Hawley, Barbara Davis, Elvin Ebersole, Laverne Crites, Harold Michael and Prof. Reed.

A silver offering will be taken for an Asilomar fund for the Y.W. C.A. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this program during next Tuesday's chapel hour at 11:15.

COACH FOX STANTON SPEAKER AT ANNUAL FOOTBALL BANQUET

The annual football banquet was held Friday night Dec. 2, at the San Dimas Legion Hall. The dinner was served at 6:45, preceded by the election of the football captain for next year—Wayne Hanawalt, a junior this year. Music was furnished during the dinner by the Bonita accordion trio.

The entire musical program after the dinner featured last year's male quartet consisting of Elwood Johnson, Rube Callison, Hal Michael and Marvin Crites. Coach Fox Stanton of Caltech was the speaker, presenting the results of both over and under emphasis of football in the school program. Coach Paul Hertz awarded Varsity letters and Louis Velasco made the Numeral awards to freshmen.

As a parting gesture, Tony Scafani, this year's football captain, presented Coach Hertz with a gift of appreciation for his work. He also introduced Wayne Hanawalt as the newly elected football captain for the year 1939-40. Coaches, football players, faculty members, and friends, eighty in all, attended the banquet, indicating their appreciation of the work done by the Leopard team.

One man can break a race horse and one race horse can break a hundred men.

Cast Selected For Junior Class Mystery Play on Friday 13th

Howling dogs, ghost tamers, modest heroines and handsome heroes, to say nothing of wits and half-wits, are featured in the Junior class play production, "The Howling Dog," a mystery drama, scheduled fittingly for Friday, the 13th of January. The action and dialogue is well distributed among the eleven characters of the play, giving each member of the cast opportunity to display his talent and claim his share of the honors.

Dot Holmes has the part of the determined young heroine who refuses to budge from her haunted house despite recurring threats to her life. Her romantic interest is played by Gordon Macauley, taking the character of a young college graduate. Doris Meacham is the satiric young vixen who finds life pretty dull until Tommie, played by Bud Henzie, comes into her life. Madge Fischer as Venus, the colored cook, and Bill Cottle, as her good-for-nothing husband, have good character parts with clever lines.

The part of Sarah, the witless maid, is taken with Zazu Pittsish mannerisms by Jewel Niswander. Dehlia Stanley as Mrs. Halliday, is a companion to Dot Holmes and Doris Meacham in character.

Dorothy Bostleman has a strong part as the domineering Mrs. Daniels; Albert Hollinger, as Mr. Steele, is a fatherly character, and Garland Mendenhall as Mat, the caretaker, has an important role.

Student Commission Announces "L" Day Postponement

"The traditional college holiday "L" Day will probably not be held this semester!" This was the statement issued by the commission following their meeting Monday night. As there has been no definite admission or denial by the commission, there still remains a slight chance that the annual trek might be held during the second semester.

Contrary to current rumors, the recent fire in San Antonio Canyon did not reach as far as Brown's Flats, as it was stopped north of the Flats in Fern Canyon, according to the United States Forestry Division in Covina. If this is the case, much of the beauty of the region is still preserved, and "L" Day may still become a reality.

The man who has only wealth to give the world is poor indeed.

Sorry--No Pictures Today; Squeegies Lost in Transit

It is with great regret this week that news pictures which were to appear in the Campus Times were lost in transit, and did not arrive in time for publication.

The following pictures were to have appeared in the paper:—two feature pictures of the LaVerne college W.A.A. initiation; a picture of Howard Glover and his fiancee, Miss Eleanor Herrick; another picture of the cast for the chapel production, "Peace I Give Unto You."

AFRICAN FILMS ARE SEEN AT CHAPEL HOUR

"In the Land of the Monkey-Bread Tree," a motion picture of the Africans, was presented in chapel last week by Dr. Homer Burke. Dr. Burke and his wife, the first medical missionaries of the Church of the Brethren in Africa, have served in Nigeria since 1923.

The simple plot of the picture, written by another of the missionaries, traces the life of a native boy from his birth through his adventures at the white man's school, his learning to spin and weave, meeting his bride and his marriage, to his becoming a Christian and bringing the new religion into his native village. It would be difficult to find a story with fewer complications than this; yet many phases of the very simple life of the Bura people were clearly shown.

Dr. and Mrs. Burke, who are in charge of the hospital at Garkida, are at present on furlough in the States. hen they return to Africa, they will leave their two small children in America to attend school.

SPECIAL SERVICE PLANNED BY CHURCH FOR SUNDAY EVENING

On Sunday evening at the Church of the Brethren a program will be given sponsored by the District Board of Christian Education, with Lorell Weiss in charge.

The LaVerne college international peace deputation team will cooperate and a group of them will appear on the program. A round table discussion on "The Palestine Situation Today" will be the feature of the evening.

Tag Day Used To Gather Funds For Relief

You lucky American students! Can you even imagine yourself tramping a thousand miles to pursue your education in a cave or dugout? Do we fully realize the conditions in war-torn China? Those Chinese students are intent upon getting an education even after their college and university buildings are destroyed. They feel a responsibility for the future of their country that is almost beyond our comprehension. Chaing Kai Shek realizes the future reconstruction of China lies in the hands of these few students, and he asks that their education continue.

The inland cities that are the new sites for the colleges are not prepared to meet the needs of the students. Not only do these young people need help for their physical existence, but they need moral support to keep their body and soul together. Twenty dollars of our money pays room and board for one student for a year, but they need more than food, they need morale. They need friendship and understanding and support.

Who will help these young people of China, but the democracies of the world. American students have pledged $50,000 for this great cause.

Through the efforts of college Y.W. and Y.M. leaders, the two-day drive for Chinese relief funds was started yesterday in the community and on the campus. Student solicitors working under the direction of Frances Kutchback and Bob Deal are making house-to-house calls throughout LaVerne.

W.A.A. Initiates New Women Club Members

Wednesday night the Y.W.C.A. room was the scene of a great event. The W.A.A. girls initiated seven new members into their club.

The paddles were very generously used in spite of the "please" on the part of the "seven."

Each new member came dressed as one of the faculty and staged a program for the benefit of the group.

After serving refreshments, everyone attended the basketball game.

The new members are Wanda Brubaker, Edith Stiverson, Marie Johnson, Donna Eisenbise, Edline Perkins, Florence Wolfe, Esther Barnett and Betty Rothrock.

THAT PLAQUE

Has it ever occurred to you that neither on Founders Hall nor on Miller Hall is there a plaque stating that this is LaVerne College? Perhaps we students do not see a need for one, but evidently there is a need.

Recently a group of elementary school children were making a tour of LaVerne and when then encountered the college they wanted to know what those buildings were. Some of them thought that maybe this was the Lincoln grammar school. They were probably making their deductions from observations of students about the campus; but that is another story.

What we wonder is, why we don't have a plaque on Founders Hall stating that this is LaVerne College, in order that people who are not acquainted with LaVerne will know without asking or conjecturing what these buildings represent.

HECKMAN HEADS TOUR OF VALLEY BRETHREN CHURCHES

Vernon Heckman, student field secretary of the college, took a group of students to the San Joaquin valley on a deputation tour over a recent week-end. They appeared in programs at the Lindsay, Reedley, Bakersfield and McFarland Churches of the Brethren, successively.

College President Returns from Eastern Religious Tour

President Davis returned home from his eastern tour in time to enjoy Thanksgiving with his family, after he had been absent from the campus for about a month.

hile in the east the President attended the meetings of the Board of Christian Education and the Council of Boards at the Church ot the Brethren headquarters in Elgin, Illinois. "The fact that will interest the students about this meeting," stated the presiden, "is that in connection with it the first National Brethren Young People's cabinet meeting was held. Mae Rolle of Olympia, Washington, representing the Pacific Coast on this committee. In 1939 the Brethren YYoung People will be represented by Leland Brubaker in Holland which are comparable to the Oxford and Edinborough conferences of last year."

From Elgin and Chicago, where he attended the closing session of the National Stewardship conference, President Davis went to Johnstown, Pa., where he held a very successful two weeks meeting in the Walnut Grove church.

All in all President Davis stated that he enjoyed the trip very much and had many interesting experiences although he was kept very busy both while enroute and during the time he was in the east.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT SPONSORS RECITAL

Prof. Harold Reed, accompanied by Mrs. Reed at the piano, presented a vocal recital during the chapel hour Tuesday morning. The program included two selections from popular operat, and German and Italian numbers as well as English. The students responded especially to Betsy's Boy by Wolfe, and Largo Al Factotum from "The Barber of Seville" by Rossini. As an encore number Prof. Reed sang a 'Negro Sermon.'

Next Tuesday morning the drama class, directed by Mrs. Laura Haugh, will present Dorothy Clark Wilson's drama, "Peace I Give Unto You," with Bill Crawford, Margaret Woy, Albert Hollinger, Orville Herr, Elvin Ebersole and Cliff Brubaker as members of the cast. A prologue will be presented by Eleanor Herrick, Catharine Miller, Madge Fischer, Viva Strayer, Hal Michael, and a double quartet directed by Prof. Ralph Travis. A silver offering will be taken for the student Asilomar winter conference fund. The program is open to the public.

Eleanor Herrick '39 Engaged To Wed Graduate

Coming as a complete surprise, the announcement of the betrothal of Eleanor Herrick '39 to Howard Glover '37, the past week-end rocked college social circles.

A group of close friends of the couple received the announcement Saturday evening at a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson, with their daughter, Annellen Wilson as hostess. Just before the refreshments were served, the draperies between the living and dining room were opened to reveal the couple standing behind a three tier wedding cake. As all eyes were turned toward the couple, Mr. Glover pllaced an engagement ring on the finger of his fiancee.

The guest list included Frances Kutchback, Roberta Jenkenson, La Von Royer, Patricia Packard, Elwood Johnson, Leslie Eisan, Wilson Ferrell, Ralph Travis, Perry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, the honored couple and the hostess.

KUTCHBACK SUFFERS DEFEAT IN W.C.T.U. ORATORY FINALS

Carter Ide, representing Pomona College, was named winner of the annual W.C.T.U. oratorical contest, in competition with nine other Southland universities and colleges. He received $75 prize money. The representative from Occidental college won second prize of $50.

Ide won from student finalists from LaVerne college, represented by Frances Kutchback; U.C.L.A., Santa Barbara State, and Occidental college. Those who entered the contest but failed to reach the finals were Chapman callege, University of Redlands, U.S.C., and Whittier college.

The contest was held Sunday night, Nov. 20, in Glendale First Methodist church. Each finalist received $25.

I.R.C. PLANS SUNDAY EVENING PEACE TOURS

Last Sunday night a peace deputation selected from the I.R.C. and directed by Miss Gladdys Muir traveled to the Hemet Church of the Brethren to present a program consisting of individual speeches on current world affairs, followed by a general forum with the students answering questions presented by members of the congregation. Those taking part were Esther Meyers, Philip Davis, Glenn Price, Archie Reeves, and Laverne Crites.

WITHIN THESE WALLS

This is old stuff, but, having written it, we simply can't bear to throw it out. . . Otto Klemperer brought out most of the Chinese kimonas and candl-----(Sp?) bedspreads in these parts. An speaking of bedspreads, Phil Davis promised he'd take Eleanor to the next artist course if she'd wear a bedspread for a wrap—now watch the gals all turn out in bedpdreads. But to go on with the symphony, some people were there with the usual people, others with the unusual. Mae Rothrock and Glen McCune, Madge and Glenn Price, Pat and Hal, Shelly Ann and Mendy were among those spotted. Viva, Marcia, and Maryl were really "Three Smart Girls." That bunny fur wrap of Viva's is really somethin.

Quotation of the week: (last week): Hallie Hylton cynicizing, "I'm really off men for life. I was last week too."

Margaret and Warren have quite a working partnership. He rides her bike home, and she drives his car. It must be nice to have friends like that. . . Everybody's happy now that Clinton and Helen Bowman have found each other.

Things we never knew till now: A 58 out of 100 in a chem quiz still given one a B; Gladden Boaz crashes parties charmingly; Hal can make love before the entire C.E. and with the lights on, too;

Just returned from Bridges and Edna St. Vincent Millay. A study in contrasts is the formal Enzio Pinza and the unconventional Millay. She had the audience right where she wanted it in an instant, notwithstanding a very formal, correct introduction. We would suggest that if she ever tired of writing she might hire out as a furniture mover (we liked the way she moved the desk) or a movie queen (we liked her).

The fast stepping lower division sextets travelled to Pomona J.C. to try their hand at playing basketball, November 28. The first team which played was composed of Wolf, Perkins, Upright, as forwards, and Walker, Johnson, Stiverson, as guards, took the game 22-18, with Upright as high point girl.

The second game with team composed of Rothrock, Eisenbise, Bowser, as forwards and Barnett, Newcomer and Leonard as guards, rallied their game to a score of 53-13. Rothrock scored as high point girl.

Citrus J.C. girls were welcomed at LaVerne Monday, Nov. 21, and returned home after being soundly defeated in two games by the snappy LaVernites.

U.C.L.A. FIVE TROUNCES LOCAL QUINTET 76-19

U.C.L.A's basketball forces took advantage of a shorter LaVerne Leopard quintet Tuesday night to score a 76-19 victory. The game, a practice contest, was played on the Bruins' court.

Gerald Sieck was high point man for the winners with 19 markers. Orian Cottle led the Leopards in scoring with 12 points.

Pepperdine Dedicates New Gym By Defeating LaVerne Varsity and Frosh in Initial Basketball Games

LaVerne College played the part of the good Samaritan last Saturday night when they aided George Pepperdine College dedicate their new $40,000 gymnasium, by dropping two games to the surprisingly strong Pepperdine quintets. The Leopards lost the varsity contest by a score of 46 to 32, and the Kittens were defeated 39 to 29.

HILLBILLIES STRONG

Led by Tilman Hall, Prissy Price and Rufus Cunningham, three hillbillies from Tennessee, the Pepperdine cagers did not miss very many shots, and seemed to score at will with their superior height.

From the opening whistle the Pepperdine boys scooted into a commanding lead and never relinquished it, nor were they in any danger of doing so at any time. The margin between the two teams was generally from six to ten points.

PEPPERDINE TOO TALL

The Leopards played good ball, but could do very little when the play shifted under the basket, where the Pepperdiners made good use of their advantage in height. When the Green and Orange did succeed in keeping the home team away from the basket zone, the Hillbillies peppered away at the LaVerne basket with a great deal of prosperity resulting from their antics.

EVEN SECOND HALF

Pepperdine held a strong lead of 25 to 11 at halftime. The two teams battled on even terms in the second half, both outfits tallying 21 points apiece.

Little Orion Cottle was the leading scorer for the vanquished Leopards, chalking up 10 points. Dayton Dickey also played a good game.

FROSH LOSE

The two frosh quintets put on a bang-up game in the preliminary tussle. Pepperdine came from behind in the second half to win out by ten points.

Our Leopard Kittens started out fast and garnered a 9 to 4 lead over the sliding Pepperdine Frosh. This lead, however, was wiped our near the end of the first canto, when Mattox, 6 feet 6 inches, started the Pepperdiners on a scoring spree which ended up with them in possession of a halftime lead of 12 to 9.

NEWCOMER SCORES

Leland Newcomer led the scorers for the Frosh with a total of 12 digits. Asson and Clint Crites each tallied 7 markers.

Intramural Sports Program Gets Away To Successful Start

With the football jerseys, pants and pigskins laid away in mothballs after an eventful season, the height of sport interest during the past two weeks, has shifted to intramural and individual competition.

In the first round of the annual intramural basketball classic, the Frosh eliminated the Sophomores, while the Seniors eliminated the Juniors. In the final playoff, the Frosh, led by sharpshooting Leland Newcomer and Dick Landis, led the Seniors a thrilling race, but lost the contest to their elders by one point, 26 to 25. During the melee the Frosh proved themselves a team of no mean calibre, so big things are expected from them this basketball season.

The anticipated interclass six-man football was not played because of lack of interest and the presence of the basketball season.

The game of badminton has developed a great deal of interest among the students. A schedule has been made for those interested individuals on an intramural basis.

For those who are in sympathy with the fact that horseshoes have purposes besides being worn on horse hooves, a king pin tournament is being formulated.

Among these different sports lie ample opportunity for all of us to engage in some kind of competitive activity, so let us take advantage of it.

LA VERNE GYM SCENE OF HOOP TOURNAMENT

The annual elimination basketball tourney, sponsored by Bonita high school, got under way very successfully yesterday.

Chaffey High Basketeers Drub Frosh

The LaVerne Frosh bowed to Chaffey last Tuesday night to the tune of 37 to 17. The Frosh five was not at full strength, and could not hit their scoring stride during the game. Newcomer was high point man for LaVerne with 10 points, while high point man for Chaffey was Hofer with 11 digits.

CHAPEL SPEAKER INTERVIEWED BY STAFF FEATURE WRITER

Students of LaVerne had the privilege last Thursday of hearing an influential and appealing speaker on China's outlook in the present war with Japan, Mrs. Mei, a Chinese woman who is an important leader in the Y.W.C.A. of China.

A visit to the Mei home in Clare mont in the afternoon of the same day revealed many interesting things about them. The first hour of the interview was spent with Mr. Mei in asking him questions about his work and his personal life. Mr. Mei has been a practicing lawyer in Shanghai in the recent past and has only been here in America since June of this year.

He was in Shanghai at the time of the bombing and he testified personally to the truth regarding Japanese atrocities upon the Chinese men, women and children. He suggested that we read articles appearing in the July and October issues of the Readers Digest on this particular Chinese-Japanese situation. He testifies to their authenticity on the ground of personal acquaintance with the author. He also told us of the character of Generalissimo Chiang-Kai Shek, commenting especially on his fine Christian principles.

After an hour or so of such conversation, Mrs. Mei returned home and immediately served us tea and cookies and candy. She then joined us in our conversation and enlightened us on many more questions.

We were very thrilled over this manifestation of their warm hospitality and we felt that they were sincere in showing us such a friend ship and interest. They extended an invitation to any other students from LaVerne who wish to visit them in the future.

MILLER HALL PLANS FOR FESTIVE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Thursday, December 14, the dormitory girls will celebrate their annual Christmas party, the chief feature of which will be an exchange of gifts and revealing of mystery friends. hTere will be a Christmas tree, and the secret is out that even Santa Claus will visit the good little Maidens of Miller Hall.

Marjorie Miller, social chairman, has as her committees for the affair: Mae Rothrock and Betty Kurtz, decorations; and Dorothy Burley, Esther Barnett, and Ada Faye McCune, refreshments.

Marjorie Miller and Frances Clark are editors of the Christmas edition of the dorm paper.

The Christmas party is one of the best social affairs of the year in the dormitory.

DEPUTATION GROUP HOLDS FIRST MEETING IN POMONA

Members of the peace deputation of the I.R.C. put on a program on Sunday night Nov. 20, at the Pomona Church of the Brethren. The five speakers, Edith Fesler, Armen Sarafian, Glenn Price, Hildegard Weiss, and Rodney Lehman, introduced by Mr. Lorell Weiss who is in charge of the deputation programs, presented, respectively, the viewpoints of Italy and Japan, Czechoslovakia and China, England and France, Russie, and the United States. Following the five minute introductory speeches, the students engaged in a discussion, answering questions presented by members of the congregation.

Another deputation is to put on a peace program at the Hemet church next Sunday night, and one at the LaVerne church the following Sunday night.

ARTIST COURSE ATTENDED BY RECORD CROWD

Led by Dr. Otto Klemperer, the ninety musicians that make up the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra gave the fine rendition that Bridges auditorium audiences have come to anticipate as a yearly feature of the Claremont Colleges artist course on Monday, Nov. 21. The orchestra played to a full house of some 2800 persons.

Gluck's "Chaconne" from the concluding ballet of "Iphigenia in Aulis" opened the program. This selertion featured reed and string sections, with the oboe taking the lead solo.

The impressionistic "Afternoon of a Faun" by Debussey gave opportunity for individual solos, with the flute forming a beautiful contrast to the low, muted strings. The first section of the program concluded with "Symphony No. 7 in C Major, Op. 105" by Sibelius. A one movement symphony, it begins slowly with a certain delicacy and the mood gradually becomes more somber, with the brass predominating and melodic interest changing rapidly from section to section.

The second part of the program was made up of Brahms "Fifst Symphony" of four movements. Building up and down, the movements allow for a full range of emotional experience as the mood shifts from one of elation to one more somber, from the delicate to a final movement of rapid and forceful tempo.

A.W.S. HOLDS STEAK BAKE AT GANESHA

Fun for all was had at Ganesha Park last Wednesday night in a combined hike and wiener bake. The girls met at Miller Hall at 7:00 p.m. and pourneyed on foot to Ganesha with only a few miscellaneous interruptions.

Several games were indulged in, after which hot chocolate and wieners were consumed by the group. When all were finished with the scraps, various girls came home by sundry methods (all arrived) and declared it an evening well spent.
