Description Black and white postcard of a threshing operation with roughly 16 men/boys pictured. The thresher is in a field and there is a large pile of hay on the left of the photo with a male standing on top of the pile. There are two horses pulling a wagon with two small boys and two men standing on top of it with what looks to be a dozen white sacks filled with something. There is a tractor in the background connected to the thresher with a long pulley system.

Written in black ink on the back is "Tony Halfman threshing at Jack Gorser".
