Coeds Attend Annual Friendship Party

Sarafian Returns To U.S.C. Campus During Summer

Dr. K. A. Sarafian, head of La Verne college's Department of Education, is again listed in the new summer session calalogue, just out, as one of the regular University of Southern California faculty members. In the first session of the summer school, he is scheduled to teach three important graduate courses: Philosophy of Education, 201a, Educational Classics, 203, Thesis Seminar in History and Philosophy of Education, 261a.

Dr. Sarafian has been with the University of Southern California since 1928, and has taught every succeeding summer except 1931 and 1936. Throughout his years with that institution he has taught courses in Educational Psychology, History of Education, Philosophy of Education, and Comparative Education. He is considered to be an authority throughout the state in History and Philosophy of Education and Comparative Education.

Dr. Sarafian has also taught the same courses at Claremont Colleges, graduate department, during the years 1929 to 1935.

STUDENT MINISTERIUM PRESENT PROGRAM AT SAILOR'S MISSION

Student Ministerium of LaVerne college rendered its first definite service last Tuesday night when a group of students conducted the regular evening service at the San Pedro Sailor's Rest Mission. This is a Christian Endeavor supported mission and the Student Ministerium represented the Pomona Valley C.E. division.

The meeting was opened with a song service led by Donna Eisenbise and accompanied at the piano by Ruth Walker. Clarence Shimer conducted devotions, and Ruth sang a beautiful solo, "My Faith in Thee." Glen McCune delivered a challenging address on "Selfishness, Sin, and Life."

The crowded roomful of men responded well to the service and entered wholeheartedly into the song service.

Bob Kurtz drove the group down, and all who went enjoyed the meeting and felt that it was a worthwhile service.

Commissioner of Publications Speaks of Finances at Meeting

With Gladden Boaz at the piano and Donna Eisenbise leading, a rousing "sing" opened the student-body meeting last Thursday night in the college auditorium. President Hal Michael presided, and a large number of the student-body were present. The meeting was not held at the usual 11:25 hour because practice teachers are not able to attend at that time.

After the singing, Roger Nine presented a number of popular selections on the saxophone. The The first of several important announcements was made by Madge Fischer and concerned the school skating party to be held Friday night. Armen Sarafian spoke of the good work being done on the "Campus Times" and the service this growing paper is rendering the school. He explained the finances of the paper and urged the students to raise enough money to sponsor an issue or two. The financial situation of the student-body was also the topic of Glenn Price's announcement in which he urged a hearty support of the basketball game with Whittier.

After the singing of school songs Captain Dickey spoke of the basketball games to be played yet and asked the students to support the team positively and not negatively with boos and hisses.

To close the meeting, Roger Nine led some yells, and the group joined in the singing of the Alma Mater.

Skating Party To Be Held At Pomona Rink

....An all-school skating party is the next big event on the calendar, according to Commissioner Madge Fischer. Friday night, March 3, LaVerne college will have thrills and spills, bumps and thumps, and fun and frolic at a big skate at the Pastime Roller Rink in Pomona. Students may go anytime after 7:30, and from 10:30 to 11:30 they will have the rink to themselves. The price of admission is thirty-five cents for the fellows and twenty-five for the girls.

LaVerne is patronizing the Pastime Rink because of their co-operation in running ads in our publications. Let's all go and have a big time skating at the Pastime.

Some girls even cry for the moon just because there's a man in it.

Travis Selects Cast and Starts Opera Production

After a series of tryouts on the part of students interested in securing roles, Professor Travis made an announcement Friday revealing who the members of the "Mikado" cast are to be. The Gilbert and Sullivan production will be presented by the A Cappella choir some time in May, and plans are well under way.

The cast chosen is as follows: Yum-Yum, Ruth Walker; Peep-Bo, Marian Moomaw; Pitti Sing, Margaret Hawley; Katisha, Patricia Packard; Ko-Ko, Arthur Snell; Wanki-Pooh, Elvin Ebersole; Pooh-Bah, Charles Butterfield; Pish-Tich Warren Richards, and Mikado, Hal Michael.

Watch future editions of the "Campus Times" for more details about the production.

CHAPEL SPEAKER DESCRIBES LEVELS OF CHRISTIANITY

Rev. Donald Carter of the La Verne First Brethren church spoke at the chapel service Tuesday morning on the subject of three levels of Christianity.

"You can't be a Christian unless you believe in the supernatural. The Lord Jesus is the presentation of God on the earth," Rev. Carter stated. He continued by saying that there must be a link between God and man; Christ is that link. However, there are three levels of Christianity, and the first never gets past the stage of believing in a moral life and in the rejection of all that is sinful and evil. People who do nothing more than reject evil are only on the lowest level of Christianity.

The second level includes those people who not only reject evil, but look above to God and respect his word. They live good moral lives and believe in and fear God, but they never do anything positive.

On the third and highest level of Christianity we find the Christian who is not merely passively good, but who lives a positive Christian life of service. The only true Christians are in this class, and young people of today must go forward with this ideal.

Untold wealth is that which is not revealed to the income tax man.

Girls Exchange Friendship Notes At Brandt Home

I'm only the statuette in the Brandt's living room, but I attended a Y.W. party last Wednesday. As soon as the girls came, a pretty girl called "Pat" gave them newspapers and pins and told them to make themselves hats that they could wear. Some of them had good ideas but the execution was poor. Shelly Ann made one that was a prize winner. I forgot to see if she wore it home.

After that Pauline and Marjorie talked about friends and what they mean to people. They both said LaVerne college was a friendly place.

And then the strangest thing happened. Each girl was given a stack of notes. When she read them her chest sorta puffed out and her head just swelled and swelled. All the girls looked satisfied and pleased and called out "Thank you" to other girls.

Nobody thought to give me some ice cream with hot chocolate sauce on top and a doughnut underneath. Ice cream must be something special, the way the girls ate two or three dishes.

Pat led some cute songs until a handsome young man arrived. He is the pastor of the Presbyterian church in Pomona. He was very clever: the girls giggled more than ever. He talked about the kind of women the girls might become. He certainly created a lovely woman as he talked.

If the girls live up to those friendship notes and to that ideal lady, LaVerne college is going to have a great many charming women on the campus.

Students Attend Early Morning Watch Service

Those who did not go to morning watch last Wednesday missed a very inspirational service. Students who attended brought some of their favorite poems and read them. Hal Michael led the service and read several of his own poem selections.

Every one is urged to come next Wednesday at 6:00 in the Y.W. room to start the day out with refreshing thoughts which will help one to carry the burdens of the day.

A consulting physician is one that is called in at the last minute to share the blame.

No Spring Vacation This Year

Three little words—but what a wealth of meaning they have for us all. Merely three little words, but how they dissipate all our detailed plans for the future, how they arouse in some of us a well of passionate expression, and in others, only resignation.—Those three little words, "No spring vacation."

But don't call off that beach trip or that trek up to the World's Fair just because of those three words. After all, you'll have Friday, and even a half day on Monday on which to recuperate after your long and strenuous week-end. Wasn't it nice of our faculty friends to concede us half of Monday? (They must have known that we don't have any classes on Monday morning anyway.) But don't let's quibble. The decision was made in the interests of humanity. It was a question of eliminating either commencement or the vacation, and since the seniors could not bear to part with commencement, the vacation is not to be.

Anyway, you'll undoubtedly all be better off for not having had a week of dissipation— and if you weren't planning to dissipate, then what would be the use of a vacation? Furthermore, if you are not convinced by now that vacations are pernicious items that entail only the passing of wasted time that will pass and be wasted anyhow, then console yourselves with the thought that it will probably rain that week—and every one knows that rainy vacations are about as interesting as chapel speakers.

ADA FAYE McCUNE LEADS SINGSPIRATION AT DAVIS HOME

After the joint high school and college C.E. cession at which Coach Manley Reitz spoke, and the following church meeting, the high school and college students attended the Singspiration at the Davis home.

Ada Faye McCune opened the sing by leading a number of pep songs with Gladden Boaz hitting it up at the piano. The junior women's trio, composed of Dehlia Stanley, Jean Bergman and Dorothy Burley was called on to sing an inspirational song, after which the group joined in the singing of a series of old favorite religious songs. The Singspiration closed with a prayer sevrice and the serving of apples for refreshments.

DINING CLUB HAS CANDLELIGHT DINNER THURSDAY NIGHT

Student dining club members enjoyed another beautiful candlelight dinner last Thursday night. The tables were arranged with tablecloths and candles, the meal was of a finer variety than usual, and the students themselves were attired in their "Sunday-go-to-Meeting" clothes. Numerous special guests were present for the dinner.

After the meal, seasoned with friendly talk and fellowship, a short program that had been arranged by John Landis was presented. Tony Waas sang two numbers and the freshmen men's quartet presented a series of numbers. The group adjourned to attend the student-body meeting at 7:30.

She threatened to go to Chaffey the second semester, but realized we couldn't do without her, so stuck with La Verne. Like most of the underclassmen, she doesn't take her studying very seriously. SPORTS

LEOPARDS FRIGHTEN WHITTIER CAGERS

Mouthing Off

—Bob Tafoya—

Last Tuesday night was the first time I saw our basketball team in action. If the refereeing in that game is a sample of the refereeing in all our games, I can readily see why the crowds stay away It seems to me, and to many others consulted, that they were too quick on their whistles. The general concensus of opinion is that they called held ball when the ball was free and ignored personal fouls that were committed. . . .

Seen out for baseball: President Davis out shagging fungoes. He showed more DASH and GINGER than any one of the students out for the sport. It is an example that should be followed by all students . . . Louis Velasco, L.V.C. track coach, tells me that he expects to send Perry Smith, javelin thrower, to the Long Beach Relays, March 18, and if any of the other fellows show any promise they will also be sent . . . .

Basketball is now over, and, although we did not have a successful season from the standpoint of wins and losses, the boys demonstrated that they were capable of playing good ball. The games they lost were due directly to the lack of height. It took a very good team to defeat our Leopards.

Where is the olde spirit of La Verne? It seems that the fair maidens of this institution are not being supported in their interclass athletics . . . . The Los Angeles Angel baseball team went into spring training at Ontario yesterday. Good luck, Cherubs . . A word of praise to the students acting as managers for the various sports. They are the unsung heroes of institutions. Now will one of you RATS be out to give us some towels this evening, after practice.

Horse Hiders Turn Out

When Coach Franny Crites issued his first call for baseball practice he was greeted by the following candidates: Outfielders—Archie Reeves, Bruce Reeves; Infielders— Loren Gregory, Tony (Get-off-your-knees) Scafani, Alex "Bigby" Avilez; Pitchers—'Toots' Elliott, Joe "Muggsy" Guillick, Jeff Mendenhall; Catcher—Bob Tafoya.

Coach Crites expects the following persons to report now that basketball is over: Captain Wishy Ferrell, leading moundsman from last year's team; "Hook" Cottle, Bob Fischer, Clayton "Legs" Shehorn, John Landis, Laverne Crites, Jack Cook, and Burky Burkhart. As far as we know, the first game will be played on March 1.

Coach Velasco Reveals Plans For Track

In an effort to stimulate interest in track and field, Coach Louis Velasco plans an interclass track meet for Thursday and Friday of this week. It is his plan to award a plaque to the class winning the meet, and to award ribbons to the first, second and third place winners. As far as he now knows, there are four trackmeets scheduled with the possibility of entering some relay meets.

Thou blazing inferno of heat and smoke—
What angry thoughts possess thy metalic mind,
As from thine oily depths thou belcheth forth
Voluminous clouds of blackness—
Soot and smoke?

Hast thou some vengence in thine evil heart
That causes thee to curse with blackest dread—
All things that lie within thine inky grasp?
Or hast thou still some trace of helping spirit
Which lay hidden in thine heart of ebony?

What words of wisdom could thy flaming tongues relate?
But since thou canst not doff thy muted mantle,

Mr. Marsh, a Hollywood make-up artist, representing Max Factor, will conduct a make-up demonstration Wednesday, March 1, from 12:25 to 2:10 in the afternoon. Mrs. Haugh has arranged this demonstration of stage make-up, and all those who are interested are invited to be in room 217 at 12:25.

If any one wishes to talk to Mr. Marsh after 2:00, he will be glad to stay; but it is requested that students who desire to see the demonstration be there at 12:25 in order not to interrupt during the presentation.

DOROTHY DEAL GIVEN SHOWER BY FRIENDS

Mrs. Cletus Holmes and Mrs. Dale Ebersole were hostesses at a shower given in honor of Mrs. Robert Deal at the home of Mrs. Ebersole. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers in a color scheme of yellow and white.

After Mrs. Deal had opened her gifts, the hostesses served refreshments of dainty sandwiches, cookies and coffee, with favor cups.

Guests at the shower were the Misses Belva Buck, Helen Brownsberger, Frances Grober, Thelma Shryer, Edith Shick, Wanda Brubaker, Marie Johnson, Edith Stiverson, Zelda Brubaker, Annellen Wilson, Jewel Niswander and Ethel Dresher; Mesdames Willard Davisson, Gerald Deal, Ben Hepner, J. S. Zimmerman, John Zug, Melvin Flora, Verna Ikenbery, D. W. Kurtz, H. Melvin Brubaker, Earl Wilson, W. H. Smith, C. I. Myer, and E. E. Ebersole.

LA VERNE GRADUATE HONORED RECENTLY AT SHOWER

Miss Barbara Bolling was hostess at a pre-nuptial shower in honor of Miss Belva Buck, at the home of Miss Bolling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bolling. The house was decorated with spring flowers, and at ane corner of the room was an imitation rainbow, which had the gifts at the end.

After Miss Buck had opened her gifts, the hostess served refreshments of decorated cakes, coffee, ice cream, and nut favor cups.

Those attending were Opal Burnette, Altonetta Waas, LaVon Royer, Virginia Watson, Mary Lou Jackson, Olive Blickenstaff, Frances Grober, Doris Beckner, Ellen Hogle, Ruth Clark, Mrs. Maurine Arnold, Mrs. John Cornelius, Mrs. Willard Davisson, Mrs. Robert Deal, Mrs. Elvin Ebersole, Mrs. Frank Lapp, Mrs. Harriet Holsinger, Mrs. Doyle Montz, and Mrs. E. R. Buck.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were Dorothy Frantz, Alice Klingaman, Margaret Grant and Darlene Buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Frantz were honored at a shower Wednesday night by a group of friends. The affair was in the nature of a kitchen shower and housewarming. After the gifts had been opened, refreshments of apple pie, whipped cream and coffee were served.

Guests present were Madge and Enid Fischer, Joyce Kyhl, Rosemary Haines, Mrs. H. H. Kyhl, Robert and Walter Fischer. Ruth Doutt sent a gift, but was unable to attend.

The Social WHIRL

Things we could do without: The Varsity Club's attitude about having the girls throw a party for them; the Walls writing columnist's attempts to start a feud with the other column writers; the grape-vine method of passing on false rumors. . about engagements for instance; the faculty's ideas about spring vacation; lectures, talks, or class discussions on the subject of marriage or anything even remotely related to it.

Orchids to: the junior girls' trio, Archie's vocal chords, the hoopsters for coming through with a final victory over Cal-Tech, and Manley's debut as a public speaker.

Quotation of the week: Meacham was telling in education class the other day about a village in Belgium where, since it is over-populated with women, they invite all single men from miles around to a match-making get-together one day each year . . . When she said a lot of marriages resulted, Madge popped her hand into the air and asked, "How far is that from here?"

We hear that Perry is worried about remaining a bachelor for the rest of his days—maybe he should head for that Belgium village too. On the other hand, it would be much simpler for LaVerne coeds to introduce an annual match-making day right here.

Now that young Brandt is on the editing staff, Barbara wants a promotion to the make-up department. She doesn't like the idea of his spending those long Monday evenings alone with the editor.

The friendship party left all the gals feeling chagrined about having received notes from people they had forgotten to write to. Remedy: either write little eulogies to all the girls, or break an arm so you won't have to write any—the latter is the least painful in the long run.

False alarm? Everyone is still guessing as to the identity of the sophomore girl who is supposed to be contemplating announcing her engagement. The candle-light dinner didn't throw any light on the question, or did it?

Do You Know: What frosh fellow thinks he has to go with a gal four weeks before he can say he is going with her, and hopes to get in that last week any time now? What senior-sophomore couple has decided to call it 'Finis' after these many months? What reserved junior fellow definitely dislikes being chased? Why the seniors are so unit-ed these days? Who has been laundering Johnny's hankies lately, and why? What frosh fellows are receiving letters from lonely heart correspondents in Missouri and Arizona, thanks to the Kurtz gal? . . . Just about every girl except the one implied seemed to think the first question in last week's Did You Know paragraph referred to her.

One of my pet peeves is to have a gas station attendant run over by windshield with a dirty rag just after I have washed and polished it myself.
