The Phil Cooke of Santa Fe radio station for whom I used to do Taos tapes, mentioned in clipping, is great grandson of General Philip St. George Cooke, who was a West Pointer, served with the Union Army, while his son General John Rogers Cooke served with the Confederacy. Gen. Philip St. George Cooke's son-in-law was J E B Stuart. So much fascinating history in this Virginia family. John Esten Cooke was called the Ernie Pyle of the Civil War. I have some of his books etc

Phil now lives in Mexico, — likes the Guadalajara climax. And living not as expensive as in U.S. He is an historian and is writing. We are distant cousins.

I first met Phil (of Richmond) on a trip he made to Taos in about 1953, then his mother Mrs. Philip St. George Cooke II came out and visited me. Lovely person. Dead now for quite some years, as is Phil's father.

Phil moved to Santa Fe and lived there for a number of years. Incidentally, his great grandfather, as a young lieutenant, was sent to New Mexico on a tour of duty. I have his published journal
