MEMO FROM

Betty Vequist

10-22-90

Dear Paul - I'm sending these two charts my father made in the thirties which may be helpfue to you. I have copies here so you may keep them. At least I found out John Chapman (CALVIN?) Mayne is buried in Germantown, Ohio. He goes into the Embrees, Stantons (my Dad) and Maynes more than you may or cared care to do, but some of his conclusions are interesting - I'm sure he learned a lot from his mother and Grandmother.

I will copy notes from Hannah's diary and get it to you later.

Hope to hear from you later.

Sincerely,

Betty

Edwin M. Stanton
Sec'y of State under Lincoln

Father fled France to escape persecution by Catholics. Went to Holland & from there to Philadelphia.

① John Lambert's Grandfather (John) and six brothers settled Elizabethton N.J. about 1650-1670. These seven brothers were sons of John Lambert ~~the~~ chief General under Oliver Cromwell (who beheaded Charles I about 1648). Gen. Lambert headed the troop called Old Ironsides. On the return of Charles II to the Throne, Gen. Lambert was imprisoned and later beheaded.

② These 7 children recd $1,000 each to go to frontier & all settled in Belmont Co. Ohio.

③ Daniel is Hannah's (mother's) great uncle
