CHINA TO PROTEST USSR-MONGOLIAN PACT

WIRELESS REPORTS

SOVIET-MONGOL PACT OPPOSED

NANKING, April 7. (AP)—The national government foreign office announced today it was protesting to Russia the Soviet-Outer Mongolia mutual assistance pact signed March 12.

A spokesman said the pact violated a Chinese-Soviet agreement of May 31, 1924, whereby Russia recognized Outer Mongolia as an integral part of China.

China will not recognize the new treaty, the spokesman said.

JAPAN CONTINUES CHINA PENETRATION

LANCHOW, Kansu, China, April 7. (AP)—Provincial authorities reported today Japanese military penetration had reached 1,000 miles inland.

They asserted a Japanese airplane carrying a general and seven staff officers landed here several days ago and remained two days.

Former Survey Service Head Is Called By Death

BERKELEY, Cal., April 7. (AP)—Cmdr. Fremont Morse, retired, former chief of the coast and geodetic survey, died Sunday.

With the coast and geodetic survey from 1879 until his retirement in 1924, Cmdr. Morse was noted for his triangulation and topographical work in the Pacific area.

He was born January 19, 1857, at Manchester, Mass., and received his Ph.B. degree from the University of California in 1879, joining the coast and geodetic survey the same year.

Cmdr. Morse conducted surveys of various kinds up and down the Pacific, in Alaska, California and the Philippines. In 1914-15 he did astronomical work on the Atlantic coast, astronomy being one of his major fields.

He was a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, a past president of the Astronomical Society of the Pacific and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi.

Public Debt Of More Than 34 Billions Seen

WASHINGTON, April 7. (AP)—D. W. Bell, acting director of the budget, told the house ways and means committee today the public debt will reach $34,500,000,000 by June 30 if total cost of paying the bonus is included.

He appeared before the committee considering the $799,000,000 tax program at the request of Republican members.

Permission Given To Hire Plumbers

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Maui, April 6.—After somewhat lengthy discussion on the number of qualified plumbers on Maui, the board of supervisors Friday night granted permission to Charles Savage, contractor, to hire plumbers from other islands if he is unable to fin' enough qualified men on Maui for the Makawao school plumbing job.

Mr. Savage last week was awarded the contract to build the new Makawao school plant.

In a communication to the board, Mr. Savage pointed out there are not enough qualified plumbers on the island to handle the job at the school and asked permission to go elsewhere.

Stove Explodes; Worker Burned

Yick Chong, 40 year old laborer, suffered severe burns of the face and entire right arm as a result of a weekend accident at the Yee Yap slaughterhouse, where he is employed, a police casualty report states. Mr. Chong was injured when a stove exploded, the reports indicate. He is now under treatment in the Queen's hospital.

M'CLUSKEY TELLS LIONS ABOUT PRISON

William McCluskey, formerly associated with the teachers' college of the University of Hawaii, was guest speaker today at the luncheon meeting of the Honolulu Lions club. Mr. McCluskey's subject was: The Prison's Function in the Community. He described current efforts being made at Oahu prison to rehabilitate inmates for community service.

BOMB WRECKS MEXICO TRAIN

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, April 7. (AP)—Ten persons were killed and possibly 30 others perished in the bombing of a railway bridge near Paso del Macho which hurled the Vera Cruz-Mexico City night train into a ravine, a burning mass of wreckage, at 9.30 p. m. Monday.

All victims were believed to have been Mexicans.

The bombing was unofficially attributed to a rebel group.

The locomotive, two pullmans and express and mail cars plunged 40 feet.

A Western Union lineman at Paso del Macho telegraphed that a bomb exploded on the bridge and that the cars hurtled downward and caught fire.

"All passengers of the pullmans, apparently about 40, were carbonized," the lineman reported.

"The engineer also was burned to death.

"One first class car also fell into the ravine but apparently all the passengers escaped."

Other information said 10 bodies had been recovered at 10 a. m. today.

Seamen's Union Official Held As Murder Plotter

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7. (AP)—A complaint charging I. F. Hunter, secretary-treasurer of the International Seamen's union, and James O'Neill, ship worker, with conspiracy to commit murder was signed today by Earl King, who alleged he was the intended victim.

King, secretary of the marine firemen's union, signed the complaint before Municipal Judge D. S. O'Brien.

Hunter was released in $250 bail and given a 48 hour delay. O'Neill was held in lieu of bail. Hunter called the charge a frameup. He was arrested Monday night and is a Chicago union labor leader.

Police Inspector James McCarthy and Officer George Hees alleged that Hunter plotted to kill King in connection with interfactional maritime disputes.

Asks For Jury; Gets It; Doesn't Want It; So Pays

It cost Lee See $26 out of his own pocket for 12 jurors whose services were not needed.

Lee, arrested last August on a narcotic charge, first pleaded not guilty and called for a jury trial. The jurors appeared today in Judge S. C. Huber's court. Then, Lee changed his mind and pleaded guilty.

He was placed on probation for five years on the condition that he pay for the service of a jury at $3 a day. The government paid fees of the remaining 17 members of the jury panel summoned for the trial.

Mrs. Chong Hee, indicted with Lee, on a charge of selling narcotics, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve a year and a day in Oahu prison. In connection with their arrest by narcotic agents at 1321 N. King St. August 30, 1935, one five tael tin and 114 "bindles" of opium were seized.

Director Of Air Studies Leaves

Ending leadership of explorations which made Pacific history during the past year, William T. Miller, chief of the bureau of navigation, department of air commerce, sailed on the Lurline Saturday for the mainland.

W. T. Miller

Since his arrival here early in the spring of last year he has headed several successive expeditions which made detailed meteorological and aeronautical studies of Howland, Jarvis and Baker islands to determine what part they might play in further development of transpacific aviation.

Mr. Miller plans to return to Hawaii for further work along this line within a year or so. Meanwhile he hopes to participate in pioneering work in connection with establishment of transatlantic air service.

11 KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

WPA worker had found wreckage of the plane crushed on a mountainside seven miles west of here.

Planes were searching for the ship at the time.

Quickly TWA offices at Pittsburgh reported a telephone call from the hostess. She said she was slightly injured with a bumped head.

Every available ambulance roared to the scene but some time was necessary to bring the bodies down a mountain trail.

The terrain in which the plane crashed is dense woods and mountain ridges in coal mining developments.

Four of the passengers, it was learned, were cadets at Valley Forge military academy homeward bound for Easter vacation. They were listed as D. V. August, R. G. Evans, C. H. Smith and Crawford Kelly.

At Newark, where the plane departed, the following list of those aboard was made public:

Pilot, Otto Ferguson, TWA employe for four years.

Copilot, H. C. Lewis, with TWA four years.

Hostess, Miss N. H. Granger, with the line a few months.

R. G. Evans, Pittsburgh.

C. H. Smith, New Kensington, Pa.

D. V. August, Grove City, Pa.

Crawford Kelly, McKeesport, Pa.

C. D. Bajersdorfer, Steubenville, Pa.

Frank Hardeman, New York City.

John O'Neil, Jersey City.

Mrs. M. C. Ellenstein, Newark, N. J.

C. H. Challinor, no address.

Mr. Heffernan, New York City.

G. B. Arcy, New York.

Unable To Land

Twenty six minutes before he was due at Pittsburgh the pilot radioed no landing could be made there. When the plane failed to reach Columbus, the next stop, planes sped to search for it.

Other pilots had reported ice forming on the wings in addition to soupy weather and high winds.

The plane burst into flames when it struck the mountain.

Nellie Granger, heroine of the wreck, is a small brunette, about 20.

Premier Shoots It Out With His Foe; Both Miss

BUDAPEST, Hungary, April 7. (AP)—Premier Julius Goemboes, who had talked himself out of many a duel, didn't talk fast enough today and had to face his foe at 20 paces.

However, it did not matter greatly. Both missed.

The premier's opponent was Tibor Eckhardt, Peasant party leader. They used pistols and left the field unreconciled.

The duel had to do with politics.

Hawaii Debaters Take 2 Victories

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless)

CHICAGO, Ill., April 6. — The University of Hawaii debating team, represented by John A. Cassevera and Robert C. North, won from the University of Cincinnati in a debate on the question of allowing congress to override judicial decisions of the supreme court.

The team represented by Frank Hustace and Robert G. North debated Elmhurst college, arguing on statehood for Hawaii, by a four fifths decision of the audience.
