Description Black and white postcard of three individual standing in front of an old car. There is a flag attached to the car that reads "Brothertown". Behind the car is a light colored garage. Next to the drivers door is a male in dark pants, a light long-sleeved button up and a tie. Behind him, partially standing behind the open car door is an elderly woman in a dark dress with white collar. Next to her is another woman in a light colored dress with 3/4 length sleeves.

Written in pencil on the back is "Henry Fowler and wife Mrs. Cottrell".
