To the Official Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church,

Dear Brethren, The second year of my pastorate here, to which I have been appointed by the authorities of the church, is swiftly speeding away. But a little over four months remain. I feel it proper for me to inform you that at the next Conference I expect to retire from the pastorate and shall request a superannuate relation. You may take this notice as a final announcement on my part that I can no longer after April next serve as your pastor and that you are at perfect liberty to take such action as you think best to supply your pulpit. Appreciating your hearty support, and your uniform kindness, which I shall ever remember with gratitude, I remain,

Your friend and pastor.
