Identity Statement:*Scope & Content / Abstract:

Two pages from a magazine or colored newspaper to track "Your Election Score Card". It has images of each president to date around the edges starting with Washington and ending with Truman in the top left corner. The left page has the title and eight maps of the U.S. showing how they are changing from Republican in 1920 to Democrat in 1936 and now split in 1944 with a blank map for the current election year. The right page lists all the states and their votes to track them as the numbers are called.
