Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

One sheet of paper folded in half to create four pages of letter. The first page is used as the address page. The letter is written in pencil and is badly faded and stained, can only make out "Orlando" on the first page. The first page of writing starts "Louisville Ky, July 20th, Dear Brother". The second page ends "Resp Your Brother, Orlando". The final page reads "I think you better not write till you hear from me again. I'll write soon as I have an opportunity".

Condition by	Cond notes	The letter is in good shape with light discoloration and small round stains that dot it. The writing is in pencil and has faded with wear and probably time. Getting hard to read. The letter was first folded in half and then in thirds. The middle third on the first page is the dirtiest and most discolored, it was probably on the outside and handled the most.
