Written on the back in black ink is "Jim Hawley, Stockbridge".
