Her mother was a housewife and her father was factory worker. Her dad did work on the farm. He gave the farm during the war. Roberta's three brothers served in WWII. Roberta graduated 8th grade and from West De Pere in 1948. She worked at Pranges for two years. She cooked at restaurants. She worked at the casino. Her parents used to tell the kids stories about signs and witches. Her mother and father spoke Oneida, Roberta only a small amount of Oneida. Francis (mother) made rag dolls and blanket designs. Roberta also talked about how they made medicine from plants. Some changes in life that she noticed were housing, the clinic, and the library. What being Oneida means to her is, sticking up for her rights as an Oneida. Advice that she gives is, "Whoever you work with, don't give up."
