Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Single sheet of thin parchment paper with notes written in pencil. The notes start "Mrs. Dick is buried down here, he owned our place. It then lists names down the left column. The right column of the paper starts "I am trying to make a history of the Brothertown Indians and I want your help." It asks questions about relations and a possible log home. On the back on the right column is another list of names.
