

Elder Video Catalog
Name:	Margret Skenadore	Accession #:	OHE-34
Date:	1996	Length:	P1-28 P2-29 P3-29
Description
Boarding School ☐ Military ☐ Government ☐ Language ☐ Gaming ☐
DOB: Dec.13.1909 Place of Birth: Mother: Christine (Ninham) Hill – Might have come from New York Father: Jonest Hill Siblings: Grandparents: Cornelius Hill Spouse: Gus Corn, 1945 Married her second husband Ernie Children: Kenneth, Johnny, Evon Additional Information Margret’s family lived in a log home on Riverdale (County J). Margret was turtle clan. She went to mission school age seven through nine. Then she went to Tomah for a year, in sixth grade. When she was fourteen she quit school and started working. Her first job was at the Beamont Hotel, she worked there for four years. She stayed at a home for elderly and homeless children for 2 years, and then in Brown County for two years. Margret moved to Chicago and worked in a home. She also worked at the Seymour Factory, and Larson’s Factory. She had 2 boys before she got married. She worked at Grand Care and retired, but did not have enough retirement paid, so she worked for a nurse. She worked by helping the elderly. In 1976-1983 she was elected for tribal government. She started the DDDO Club in 1980. Her father started the Oneida singers. She told the story about flying heads.
Staff Signature:		# of Discs:	3