Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Two typed pages of correspondence signed Chas. A. Grignon, U.S. Interpreter on behalf of Hon. Geo. W. Manyanny Commissioner of Indian affairs, Washington City. D. Columbia. It is just addressed to 'sir' from Kaukauna Outagamie, Wis. Sept. 27, 1855. It is the resignation letter of Chas. A. Grignon because he was "compelled to become the instruement [sic] of so much oppression and injustice that I am not willing to occupy so humiliating a position any longer". It outlines a series of events by R.W. Thompson, the Menominee Indians, Mr. Claske or Clarke (spelled both ways in the letter).

There is a tear in the second page that I think was from the previous archivist who wrote in blue pencil an accession number and then tried to erase it. Another accession number was written on the second page at the bottom but not finished, in pencil. The two pages were once held together by two staples, one in each of the top corners.
