Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Three page correspondence on a single sheet of folded paper. The last page is blank. All pages have thin blue lines. The letter is addressed "Rosendale Aug 13th 1880, Dear Sister". He talks about harvesting and how they're almost done and he is calling in all the money he loaned out to people for the mortgage. It is signed on the bottom of the third page "write soon, James S. Fowler".
