Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Four page correspondence on two pieces of lined paper (last page does not have the blue lines, opposite first page when unfolded). The letter is addressed "Fort Dodge Kansas Aug 21st 1875, Friend E. M." and is signed on the third page "Respectfully, Leesh" and EM Dick, Wis is written in the bottom left corner of the same page. The last page has multiple large drawn letters and it appears "Dick" and "Leesh" also written on it with three lines drawn (two on the right and one on the left). Top left corner of the first page has a stamp of the capital building in a box and above the building "CONGRESS" there is something underneath the building that starts with 'E' but I can't make out the rest.
