

Elder Video Catalog
Name:	Amos P. Christjohn	Accession #:	OHE-213- 23 mins
Date:	2-11-1999	Length:	OHE-214- 21 min's
Description
Additional Information Talking about the WPA. They would go out and ask Elderly what kind of story's they had to tell. Amos listed some of the names, who worked to get the story's back in 1939, Amos was also in a CCC camp. The project of getting story's went on for 3-4 years. Telling a story about Albert Webster, the story was told to Guy Elm. Told it in Oneida Lang. first, Amos transta. this story. The told it in English. The story was about how the Oneida Singers got started. OHE 214- What happen with boarding school and why did the Parent's send their children. Itc thought it was kinda good because it was hard time, it was depression time. The Children got 3 meals and a good bed to sleep in. Amos feel the Govenment was helping. Reading a story and was made up in the WPA times. The story about Fox and the Bear. Reading in Oneida and English.
Staff Signature:	Ag.	# of Discs:	2