Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Two page letter, pages are connected and have a blue hue to them. The appear to be from a sister to her brother, but the first page opens with "London Friday the 25 September 1857. My Dear Son..." There doesn't seem to be a signature for this letter, but on the third page in the same handwriting it says "My Dear Brother" and is signed Emily Kuvil, 4 East Mount Street. White Chapel Road, England, London. The last page is also to "My Dear Brother" and is signed "... your affection Sister, E. Kuvil".

The two pages appear to have been part of a notebook and are still attached to each other. It was folded in half horizontally and then in thirds vertically. There is bad staining and discoloration along the creases. There is bad staining in the center of every page and even what could be bug damage or just wear that has created holes in the center. Some of the letter is unreadable because of the staining and wear.
