The letter is addressed "Colby, Jan 6th, 1900, Dear Sister" and is signed on page four (opposite page one) "So good day with love to Laurie, PJ Johnson". The letter talks about her poor health, Hattie going to school, a party with lots of toys, a duck that was going to be eaten for Christmas but the little boy cried and wanted to keep it as a pet, and hopes for a letter in return.
