Emily Christjohn (Swamp) - Mother

Gertude & Claude Stowe - Adopted Parents

My father worked at St. Elizabeth Hospital as a custodian. He was a real cowboy. My mother made him stop being a cowboy and get a real job. I grew up in a non-native home.

My foster parents lived in Appleton. I graduated from Appleton West Hight School.

Went to college in Lacrosse. Stopped going to college and joined the Army in 1963. Served in the army till 1966.

Then I meet Judy and married her. We both went back to college in Lacrosse and my wife went to school to become a teacher. We moved back to Appleton after that and she taught school for 10 years..
 Judy became a town clerk for Grand Chute. I now works for the Oneida Tribe. I work part-time on the Appeals community.

I meet my biological mother she was a school teacher in Milwaukee. I did get to see a few times after that.
 I did not know any of my grand parents on either side
