Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Five page correspondence to Aunt Agnes L. Fowler from J.P. Johnson, written Dec. 12th, 1926. The pages are all detached and only have writing on one side, they are notepad sized and lined. The letter comes from Winchester, Idaho to Chilton, Wis. They must not have written in a while because it starts by declaring they are alive and well working in a saw mill 50 miles south of Spokane. It talks about relatives and what they do for a living.

The letters are folded into thirds and there is a single envelope that is discolored, darker than the letters. In the bottom left corner of the envelope written in ink is "Brothertown".
