Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Single sheet of lined paper with writing on both sides. The correspondence is addressed "Ellsworth Feb 27th /76, Cousin Edgar" and is signed on the back "From Henry A. S--, Ellsworth, Pierce Co. Wis". There is a stamp in the top left corner of the first page of a man in a canoe in what is shaped like a shield. The letter talks about staying in Ellsworth for a while and the landscape and people in the area.

The signature is difficult to read because the letter was folded and worn along the creases. There are multiple stains mostly on the back page along the creases. A hole is about three inches from the right edge in the middle of the last page where two creases meet. There is also a stain near the right edge in the middle of the last page that can be seen from the front too.
