Title: Waffle Correspondences 1850-1900

Scope & Content / Abstract:

Single page correspondence on a page from a ledger book with columns made from pink lines. The letter is addressed "Red Wing Minn, Feb 26, 1893, 'Father'". The letter is just an update about his studies (presumably Archie from previous letters). On the back is a list of purchases titled "Report Feb 26 1893" and it ends with "Feb 1 Balance on hand, cash per letter, Total cash receipts, What I owe Will" which is 25 cents. The list contains items like candy, board, paper, cigars, and a hair cut.

The letter was folded and on the back in the middle it is the most dirty and discolored most likely because of how it was folded. There are holes where the horizontal creases meet the vertical creases. Small stains throughout but don't distract from content.
