NATIONAL AMERICAN INDIAN COURT JUDGES ASSOCIATION

SCOTTSDALE TRAINING SESSION

MARCH 7, 8, 9, 1974

AGENDA

1000 Conn. Ave., N.W.
Suite 501
Washington, D.C. 20036
Telephone: (202) 296-0685

Judge Virgil L. Kirk, Sr., President, and the Board of Directors of the National American Indian Court Judges Association welcome all participants of this national training session for Indian Court Judges. This will be an intensive 3 days for all of us, but when the problems are extensive, the work must be intensive.

Justice and Judicial enforcement on American Indian Reservations is a special problem demanding special knowledge. The unique problems which it poses -- the fabric of tribal law, culture and tradition often at odds with the jurisprudence of the Federal Government and the States, the absence of comprehensive crime prevention programs, an overburdened judiciary, and areas of undefined jurisdiction and court practices, to mention some -- require solutions that are fully in touch with the Indian heritage and present Indian aspirations. Obviously, the simple application of non-Indian remedies to Indian needs would be wholly ineffective. In the realm of Law the Indian problem must be considered as "a case apart."

Mr. Robert Bennett
Director, Special Projects
American Indian Law Center
University of New Mexico Law School
Albuquerque, New Mexico 87131

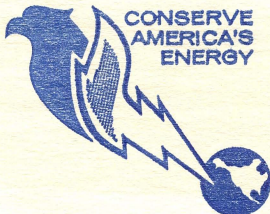

Dear Bob:

I certainly enjoyed the opportunity of having dinner with you during our recent Board of Regents meeting in Haskell. I very much appreciate your continuing interest in Indian affairs and consider your advice to me very helpful.

My best wishes to you and the family for the Holiday Season.

Sincerely yours,

Commissioner of Indian Affairs
