June the 3

My Dear Sister it was With pleasure that I received very kind and affectionate and ever Welcom Letter and Now I seal a few moments From the bidgeends of the day for I must tell you your Letter came in to my hands this Morning while on guard brot to me by Friend George he is pritty try and good look ing to for wiscondon boy but I think I am jest as smart good Looking and as smart as the Rest boy and my Dear Sister your Letter fou no me all rite and all most well I feel as well Now as i did when I Enlisted all i have a good deal of trouble perhaps altho had forgotten me she is young and I fear there is something rong with some body perhaps I am foolish but I have sent her severel letters and have not received any from her but i hope she is a good woman but then it makes Non No Diferance to me onley I would like to hear from her and if she comes home i wish you would tell her to write to me as a Mean dand a, husband I Love abba, but my Love Can be turn'd I Love a, friend but i have Learnt Since i Left home to Dispise a, fool. Wall have writen to melva and to like but perhaps I have but a, few friends in do Brothertown and they are short and sweet Wal I did not git Grenes untill a, few days a, go and I have writen to her Last week I hope she will get it I have all writen to Elizabeth to i do wish like would rite and I wrote to Louie all so I git no Litters from them they say they Love to hear from me but they for get to write to me wall tell father i will send him a, nothe book i will put it in the postoffice to Morrow if i can find one to write me and i will all so send him a, few lines, to ask him if he has got that ring on his finger i gave him i will send abba a ring to if i ever get a letter from her wall bear sister i was order to use my bayonet yesterday on a Soldier a, for the first time in my life i charge the bayonet it look hard but i will do my Duty if i fall they are piteing of hear all the time I Saw Sixty reble prisoners Come in here Last night if they expect any truble hear i am Call to be there I never expect to see you mor i am ruggle and Quick temperd and i expect to fall Join my Duty tell uncle orin i an gain to send him my Likeness within tow or three day from to day did you give my love to all i told you to give my love to luty to mother tell them i am doing well to all wilda to melva to lury hart tell her her son is hear and i will bring him home gain a, brothers love to you and Tom and the little famely if ham comes home tell him to write to a friend pleas to write soon to me and excuse me this time for so short a letter my love to father so I must bid you good day and be moving richmon will soon be taken
