Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

One legal sized page correspondence written in thick black ink. The letter is addressed "Albany Jan/jun 19th 1859. A.-. LaGrange". The month is unclear because there is a hole through the middle letter. The letter is hard to read to make out content.

The letter is in good shape. Has been folded many times, but not much staining or tears. Just the small hold through the month in the date at the top right corner. The bottom left corner is also missing, but does not affect the content. The paper looks to have been torn from something else and has a rough left edge, but a smooth right edge.
