Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

One page correspondence addressed to "Brothertown Apr th16 1859. Dear Abba". It talks about their infant being very sick and unsure if it will live. It lists a number of people who have died recently: Electa Fowler and Lesse Wiggins. Elizabeth Heart and Maria Wiggins are sick. It seems to be a cough that is going around. It talks about how some of the people in Brothertown have sold out and are moving to Minnesota. It is signed "Your affectionately, Amanda Jane Fowler".

Condition by	Cond notes	The paper is in good shape. There are dark stains on the front and back, but they appear to have occurred while writing because it looks like ink smears. There is a rip along the left edge in the middle as you look at the front page. The letter has been folded in half horizontally and in thirds vertically but little wear.
