

Elder Video Catalog
Name:	Angeline (Metoxen) Bocker	Accession #:	OHE-11
Date:	4/25/1996	Length:	7 mins/28 mins
Description
Boarding School ☐ Military ☐ Government ☐ Language ☐ Gaming ☐
DOB: Aug. 16, 1917 Place of Birth: Oneida –between Freedom and Oneida where Ridge Rd. is currently today. Mother: Mary A. (Webster) Metoxen Born in Oneida Father: William Metoxen L Siblings: Grandparents: Mother’s side- George Metoxen and Sophie Father’s side – Simon Metoxen and Dolly Skenadore Spouse: Children: Liddy Skenadore, Freeman Metoxen, Sadie Cornelius, Nellie Atkinson, Katherine Jourdon, Loyld Metoxen, Grace, Clara Deny, Ellamore Metoxen, and William. Additional Information Angeline’s house looked like one big room. She explains that were was just one big room upstairs to her log cabin home. Angeline’s parents never spoke Oneida when the kids were around therefore none of the kids in the house spoke Oneida. Her grandparents on her mother’s side spoke Oneida too. Angeline’s mother delivered babies. Angeline learned how to make baskets. Her grandma Dolly made a lot of blankets. Anegline’s chores included hauling wood, water, cooking, and babysitting. The schools she went to were 7 Adventis, puplie school, and Elm. Angeline’s first car was a Chevy She went to Methodist Church. She went to do house work in Milwaukee for 2 years when she was about 18 or 19 years old. Angeline’s mother was an Oneida singer. A great event she recalls a family reunion. Angeline was turtle clan. She was married to Melvin Bocker for 50 years, and they have 17 great grand kids. She states that if she was to change one thing in her life it would be “stay young.”Her advice she gives is to do what she did.
Staff Signature:		# of Discs:	1