Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Postcard with a large stamp on one side that reads "United States, Postal Card, Nothing but the address to be on this side" with an image of a males side profile and one cent in the middle. The postcard is addressed to "Mrs Agnes L. Fowler, Brothertown, Calumet Co., Wis". The originally blank side reads "Colby Wis., Dec 5, 1892, Aunt, will drop you a few lines to let you know that we will be there Thursday (Dec 8) if nothing happens to prevent us. All are well as usual as there is nothing else I will close (will be at Fondulac) From, Hattie Johnson". There appears to be two small B's written along the right edge near the bottom.
