Description Black and white postcard of three children standing around an older woman sitting down. There is a dog in front of the four individuals and they are sitting in the shade of an awning on a wood and mortar house with a shingled roof. There is a barrel to the right on them in front of the house and a large wood 4-sided frame, leaning against the building. There appear to be a wood chair around the left side of the house as you look at the postcard. Surrounding the house are bushes and brush and one tree in the foreground.

The postcard has a large black ink stain in the top right corner as well as small spots in the bottom right corner. Written on the back under "correspondence here" is "Charlotte Patter" in black ink.
