Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Four pages of handwritten notes in pencil. Writing on only one side of each sheet. Last page is written in black ink and last two pages are out of order chronologically from first two. Keeping them all together because that's the way they came. First page starts with 1831 "The first settlers were Mrs. Dick, --Dick, -- David Johnson, Isaac Sci--, Randall Abner, Thomas Commuck" and is listed at Deansburgh. The second page starts with 1840 "Held their first county election at the home of --- Dick, and the mission house at Stockbridge". Third page is out of order and goes back to 1843 and the steamboat brought from Buffalo to Green Bay. Last page in black ink starts with 1831 and repeats what was said on the first page under 1831. Most of the information is the same on the last page as the first just written differently and 1832 is added as a date.
