

Jane thinks she would like to sell and come out west to live. Jane says that she will give you three thousand three hundred dollars for your land (to Sep.) by purchasing your share. She could then sell the whole together more readily than the lots could be sold separate.
You had better write and ^{let} her know what you say to the proposition.
Mr Miller was down here this winter he stayed about two weeks. he was at our house, he says he likes the west better than he does here. I think myself if a man intends to follow Farming for a living, he can do so to a better advantage in the west than he can here.
Mrs Young and all of John's children were out to our house the day after New Year. and spent the day.
Jane was here last week and stayed four or five days. that suit that has been pending. so long has been decided against her. Maggie Gaffney is dead.
Maria wants Jane to come up and stay a week with her. Amel Wing is married.
Mary Potter was the Belle of the Party they had. a quite wedding and Wing failed the next day. The two Colson Girls are married both at the same time. the above lotting are all dictated by Jane.
Mrs McConerty is blind. Kit. Dud. Mary Elly & Jim are as hearty as Bucks. Dud is as tough as whalebone.
Rach is all right. Answer soon. Res. L. G. H. M. Bullock
