Description Tintype of a man in a three piece suit. His left arm (right in image) is bent and leaning on something outside of the image. The tintype is glued to a pinkish piece of paper with pink/red lined borders and flourishes in the corners. The frame is an oval shape. The back is glued to a piece of purple construction paper. The tintype was in an envelope that reads "Jacob Fowler, Drowned in Lake, Uncle of Milard, #58". This is most likely O.E. Heller's organization system.
