Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Two identical lists on the same legal sized paper of a "List of Graves decorated by the Com for the Brothertown Cemeteries for 1915". They are both written in pencil and in the same handwriting. The only different between the two is that BC2010.022.699B is in a purple pencil. The back pages also are the exact same, but the pencils were switched: the purple pencil was used to write the label on BC2010.022.699A. Both list EM Dick as the committee. 34 names are listed at the top, two under WRC, seven under Old Wars, two under Private Cemeteries, and one under Calumetville.

BC2010.022.699A has a dark stain on the bottom just left of the last name listed. There is a tear along the middle crease from the left edge about 2 inches inward. The back is dirty from handling and the pencil is fading or worn.

BC2010.022.699B has six tears: four along the left edge, one about two inches in from the left edge, and one along the right edge along the bottom crease. It is also dirty and worn from handling, especially on the back. There is a dark spot on the back near the left edge (if looking at the written label) closer to the bottom.
