Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

10 pages of typed correspondence between President Martin Van Buren and the Register of Green Bay Land, John S Horner regarding the land divided amongst the Brothertown in Wisconsin after the 1839 act. Charles Anthony, Alonzo D. Dick, Randal Abner Sr., Thomas Commuck, and David Johnson also submitted information for this document as well. Each page is numbered in the middle of the top margin. It appears to track the land being divided and on the last page returns the patent for a John Kiness who does not exist.
