Description Tintype of a man in a suit and large bow tie sitting. His hands are in his lap and it appears as if one (his left) is bandaged. His cheeks are colored a rose color. The tintype is in a wood, latched book and the opposite side of the image is a red velvet material. The image is also framed with a gold decorative metal. The book has a rounded square design and flourishes in each corner. The same design is on both the front and back covers. The book was given the number #51 by O.E. Heller and his organization scheme.
